GOLDEN WEDDING

Topper.

A very interesting and uncommen event took place on Monday afternoon and evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Eyer celebrated the 50th anniversary of their wedding day. If it is an occassion of rejoicing when a new home like a new star is sprung to birth and rolled on its harmonious way among myriad homes of earth, the joy may be all the greater when after so many cycles of months it still persists, looking back upon so long an interval of prosperity. Children, grand children and friends to the number of 38-tf one hundred, from Saskatchewan, Hespeler, Guelph, Toronto, Meaford, Acton, Dundas and the immediate vicinity, participated in the festivities of the occasion—many were the greetings and congratulations. Letters and telegrams were received from those who could not be present. Mr. and Mrs. Eyer were also made the recipients of many valuable gifts, including three arm chairs, a quantity of silver and chinaware, two hand-some umbrellas, besides nearly a hund-red dollars in gold coins. After supper Rev. E. C. Currie was made chairman and an informal program of music and speeches was given. Appropriate readings were also contributed by Mrs. Currie and Rev. Dr. Smith. Dr. Rod and Gun for March, published by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, hostess in most appropriate style and was followed in apt remarks by Messrs. Winger, M. Heise, D. Wideman, L.

E. C. Currie exchanged duty on last Sunday morning. The latter reports a full house and fine singing at the Industrial Farm.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH.

All those who were not fortunate enough to be present and take part in the service in St. Mary's church on Sunday Feb. 23rd missed a great Sunday Feb. 23rd missed a great blessing and are the poorer for it. The service was very hearty indeed, and the address one of the most practical ever delivered in a Richmond Hill church. The Right Rev'd W. D. Reeve, D. E. assistant Bishop of Toronto, was the special preacher. The Bishop took for his text Ephes. III. part of verse 20 "The Power that worketh in us." From the text he worketh in us." worked out his theme in a most effective way, showing what a baneful effect the ruling passions, motives and desires of many, apparently good people, have upon the religious, social and business world of to day. closing, his Lordship appealed to his hearers to see to it that the power that worketh in them should not be one that made for selfishness, but to know the love of Christ, and be filled with all the fulness of God.

The Lenten week night services in St. Mary's Church have been well attended during the past four weeks. The addresses have been very helpful and instructive. The next service will and instructive. The next service will te held on Friday evening March 7th at 7.15 o'clock. The Rev. O. Patterson-Smyth, M. A. of St. Alban's Cathedral, Toronto, will be the special preacher. On Wednesday evening Marce 12th, the Rev. C. J. James, M. A. of the church of the Redeemer, Toronto, will be the special preacher. Everyone will be made welcome.
