MACKENZIE KING FOR NORTH YORK.

Quite a number of the citizens of Richmond Hill and vicinity went to Newmarket Saturday to listen to the speeches at the Liberal Convention for North York. The Town Hall was crowded to the doors and hundreds were turned away. Another meeting, however, was held in the same place in the evening. The two nominations made were T. C. Robinette, K. C., who contested the riding unsuccessfully in Sept 1911, and Hon. Mackenzie King, formerly M. P. for North Waterloo. As Mr. Robinette declined to accept the honor, Hon. Mackenzie King received the unanimous nomination as Liberal standard bearer at the Next Dominion election. Rousing and inspiring speeches were given by Mr. Robinette, the Candidate, Dr. Michael Clark, M. P. and others. Naturally the principal subject of discussion was the Government Navy Bill. Everybody present was impressed with the idea that Mr. King is one of the strongest candidates that could be placed in any riding at the present time.

50 YEARS AGO AND NOW.

Last Monday's Evening Telegram contained photographs of two of our esteemed citizens, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Eyer, taken on their wedding day, 50 years ago, also photographs as they were last week when they celebrated their Golden Wedding. The pictures were accompanied by a column article giving a sketch of the family from the time Mr. Eyer's father came over with the United Empire Loyalists. A glance at the pictures will prove that well as Mr. and Mrs. Eyer looked 50 years ago, they have improved as the years go by.
