Circle will be held at the residence of Mrs. James on Wednesday evening, the 16th inst. Refreshments served at Instrumental music; also addresses pected. All welcome.

Deep regret was felt here when it was known that Nellie Cooper, beloved wife of Mr. J. J. Davidson, had passed away on Thursday of last week. About four weeks ago she was taken ill and in spite of all that could be done by doctors, nurses and loving friends she gradually sank until the end came.
The whole village was plunged in gloom by the sad event, as she endeared herself to a host of friends by her gentle loving disposition. She was a valued member of the Methodist Church choir, and those who listened to her sweet voice will not soon forget the messages of love and hope which she sang.
The love and esteem in which she was held was evidenced by the large number of friends and relatives who attended the funeral on Saturday afternoon, and by the large number of floral tributes. An impressive service in which Rev. T. Douglas, Rev. S. A.
Lawrence and Rev. J. H. Oke took part was held at the house before the interment. The choir led the singing and also sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." On Sunday evening a memorial service was held in the church when short addresses were given by Rev. J. H. Oke and Rev. Mr. Douglas and suitable music was rendered by the choir. The choir loft was draped in black and a sheaf of lilies and roses rested on the vacant chair. She has gone to join the Higher Choir, but the memory of her sweet life will linger long in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. The heartfelt sympathy of everyone is extended to the sorrowing husband and the other relatives in their sad bereavement.

PUBLIC MEETING.

Reeve Pugsley presided at a public meeting in the Masonic Hall Monday evening. He explained the severe loss that Mr. Lawrence had suffered on Good Friday when his large Greenhouse was practically destroyed by the high wind. The Council wished to get the opinion of the ratepayers relative to giving Mr. Lawrence some assistance in replacing his building.

The opinion was freely expressed, that the Greenhouse would soon employ a large number of hands, and was considered a valuable asset in our village. By helping this industry we would be helping the village, but the new building must be built so as to be proof against wind or storm.

Among those who offered suggestions were W. Innes, W. Pratt, Dr.
Langstaff, Dr. Pentland, G. F. Allen, G. McDonald, F. F. McMahon, J. H.
Sanderson, N. O. Hagerman and G. S.
Sims. Before closing the following resolution was carried:—

Moved by Wm. Pratt, seconded by Wm. Innes:—That whereas Mr. Lawrence has approached the Village Council asking for financial aid to enable him to reconstruct his Greenhouse buildings and to otherwise assist him to carry on his undertakings here.
And whereas it seems advisable for the Village of Richmond Hill to grant such aid. Therefore be it resolved that we the ratepayers here assembled request the Village Council to submit a by-law to provide for raising the sum of Five Thousand Dollars to be loaned to the said Mr. Lawrence, the loan to run for ten years and to be repaid at the rate of One Thousand Dollars per annum during the last five years of the said term, without interest.

Maple.

On Friday evening the members of the Young Men's Bible Class in the Methodist Sunday School surprised their teacher, Mrs. Morgan, by visiting at the parsonage, and after spending a social time presented her with a cut glass water set accompanied by the following address, Mrs. Morgan has nursed only three Sundays from teaching the class in three years and two months.

Dear Mrs. Morgan—We, the members of the young men's Bible Class desire on this occasion to express our gratitude for the interest you have shown in each and every one of us.
We regret that the time will soon come for your removal from our class. We and the entire school will suffer a loss which will be felt in all the departments of work.

We feel that we can best repay you for your endeavors for us by trying to live up to those principles of Christ-ianity which you have taught us by both precept and example, by endeavoring to lead others to Christ. We are certain that no matter where your lot may be cast in the future, your efforts will always be in the interests of God's Kingdom, and we pray that God's blessing may always be upon you in the work.

As a token of our appreciation of our efforts and of the esteem in which you are held by all of us, we ask you to accept this small gift.

We hope that when you have removed from us you will remember us in your prayers. We wish Mr. Morgan and yourself and family success in future lives and hope to meet you in the land where there will be no separations.
Signed on behalf of the class,

CHAS. T. STEPHENSON, Pres.
ADRIAN KILLOUGH, Secty.

A pleasant evening was spent in
