The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL, ONT., APR. 17, 1913

DEFEAT WITH HONOR.

Many men on both sides of politics are loud in their condemnation of the Dom. Government for the insult offered Sir Wilfred Laurier last week in Parliament. When the Leader of the Opposition rose to speak on the opening of the debate on the closure, the speaker, Dr. Sproule, ruled that Sir Wilfred had the floor, but notwithstanding that ruling, a vote of the House was taken, and he was forced to give way to a member of the Government.

The great Liberal leader has never yet been charged with unfairness towards a political opponent, and the insult offered him was not necessary in the passing of the Navy Aid Bill. Speaking afterwards Sir Wilfred Lauriersaid:—"There was no obstruction in 1911, when the Liberals introduced the Reciprocity Bill early in January, and could not reach even a preliminary vote on July 26th. We were met at every step with dilatory speeches or motions, but I did not complain. Two courses were open to me. I could have done what is being done today by Mr. Borden and introduced the closure. There was another course, an appeal to the people, and I advised my colleagues to give that to the Opposition. We appealed to the people and were defeated and I would rather to day stand here defeated and in opposition by that appeal to the people than to stay there in office by the power of the gag."

LIQUOR LICENSE AMENDMENTS

Mr. Hanna's amendments to the Liquor License Act have aroused keen interest. There are certain good features in the changes, but on the whole it must be admitted they were disappointingly meagre. To keep the bars closed from 6 to 8 o'clock in the morning is all right, but many expected that an hour or two would have been cut off at night which would have been more of a real reform. There were also repeated rumours that the Government intended to close the bars on Saturday afternoon, but this information also proved to be incorrect.

The increase from $1.000 to $1.600 as the license fee for shops applies only to Toronto. General satisfaction among advocates of temperance is expressed with the clause prohibiting bottle trade over the bars. At best, however the Bill is very evidently only a half way measure.

In one of the most interesting debates of the whole session on the Hydro Electric System, Mr. Rowell, with a vigor and force which aroused great enthusiasm among his followers proved several points. First he showed conclusively that the Liberals far from opposing the Hydro project were anxious to lead in the movement and see to it that the farmers of the Province secured as speedily as possible the benefits of the system as well as people in cities, towns and villages. Secondly, he secured from Hon. Adam Beck a tacit admission that the Liberal party's opposition to the transference of the Hydro management from a Commission to a department of the Government was the wisest course.

Mr. Proudfoot's bill in the Legislature to exclude Club licenses in local option districts seemed fair and logical, and should have been allowed to pass. It is often a good thing for the laboring class to have liquor removed from their midst, but it does not seem fair to allow the wealthy class to have Clubs where they can get all the strong drink they have a mind to pay for. At present there are only two of such clubs in Local option districts.
