This promises to be a busy summer at the Industrial Farm. The switch has been lengthened, and quantities of material for building purposes are arriving. Five car loads of brick have already come, and 65 more car loads have been ordered, also 100 car loads of gravel. ## A PROTEST AGAINST SUNDAY CARS.

Clergymen representing 15 congregations waited on Hon. J. S. Hendrie, Dr. Godfrey and Mr. T.H. Lennox on Tuesday, entering their protest against Sunday cars being run on the Metropolitan Railway. Col. Hendrie promised full consideration of the objections when the bill came before the Railway Committee. It was strongly urged by some of the speakers that to allow cars to run on Sunday in country places, where they are not a necessity, was simply a matter of placing commercial affairs before the moral welfare of the people. The protest will be again taken up to-day.

Two doctors were speedily summoned, but the victim of the terrible accident never regained consciousness, and died two hours later. Deceased is survived by a widow and two sons.
