VICTORIA DAY
IN RICHMOND HILL.
SUCCESSFUL SPRING FAIR.

The directors of the Agricultural Society were again favored with delightful weather on Victoria Day when another successful Exhibition was held.
There was a record attendance, the gate receipts being upwards of $100 more than last year's. The Metropolitan Railway gave a good service, both Mr. Wilson, assistant manager; and Mr. Livingston, traffic manager, looking well after the interests of the company and their patrons. The games started in the forenoon with an exhibition baseball match between Glenmont and the home team, which ended in a draw. The football prize was won by the Edgeley team. Every department of the Fair had its patrons, but the principal attraction seemed to be in the horse ring. There was an excellent show of light horses, but the draught and agricultural classes were not as good as last year's.

One of the exciting features of the afternoon was the keen competition for the $45 silver service donated by Mr. A. J. H. Eckardt of Toronto for the best single lady driver. The first prize was won by Miss Ella McLean of Richmond Hill; second Miss Millie Gardhouse of Weston; third Miss Cahoun of Schomberg. In the married ladies driving Mrs. S. Hastings of Tottenham got first prize.

The Richmond Hill Band gave a good musical programme. In the afternoon John A. Kelly and Miss Margie Munro entertained the audience, the former as a ventriloquist, the latter in her fancy dances.

The concert in the evening was satisfactory, both financially and otherwise, the receipts being $249.95. The
