FARM PROFITS

May be largely increased by knowing the exact condition of the farmer's market, and by learning of the best method in farm practice. This is precisely the sort of information the Farmers' Weekly Sun gives in every issue. It has no equal as a Farmer's Business Paper. Good farmers rely on it. For price see our clubbing offer.

HORSE CASE SETTLED.

A case which has created a good deal of interest among horsemen was settled in the County Court on Thursday, after the examination of a large number of witnesses. It seems that on the 5th of February Alfred Gordon, a dealer in horses, bought a mare from John Sheardown, giving a cheque, $300, and took her away. The next day Mr. Gordon took the animal to the sales stable in Toronto, offered her for sale, but did not sell. The same evening she was returned to Mr. Sheardown's stable after dark. A neighbor hearing that the animal was returned informed Mr. Sheardown of the fact. Mr. Sheardown went to the stable, and thinking that she had been abused and over driven called in a veterinary the same night. Afterwards the animal was attended by both Dr. Kelly and Dr. Sanderson. As Mr. Gordon stopped payment of the cheque, Mr. Sheardown sued for the selling price, $200, and for care and nursing. Mr. Gordon disputed the claim on the ground of "Fraud and Misrepresentation". The case was tried by His Honour Judge Denton and a jury. Judgment was given against Mr. Gordon $275 and costs. Messrs. Lennox & Lennox acted for the Plaintiff and Messrs. Robinette, Godfrey & Co. for the defendant.

MACDONALD—MOODIE.

A quiet house wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's father, Richmond Hill, when Miss Florence E. Moodie, daughter of Mr. Alex. Moodie, was united in marriage to Mr. James Macdonald of St. Mary's. The bride who was unattended was dressed in pale gray corded silk. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. C. Currie. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. These included Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald, Mr. Wm. Macdonald, and Mr. Roy Skinner, a brother-in-law, of St. Mary's. The presents to the bride were beautiful and useful, including a lovely watch and chain from the groom. After supper the bridal couple left for a short trip. On their return they will spend a short time at Richmond Hill after which they will take up residence on their farm at St. Mary's.

WALKED OFF CAR.

Mrs. Williams who with her husband and little children reside in Mr. M. Boyle's north house at lot 40 happened with an accident Saturday evening. She had been to Thornhill, and coming up asked the conductor to let her off at Boyle's gate. As the car did not stop she apparently became excited, and walked out of the door though the car was going about 20 miles an hour. She struck the hard road, receiving severe bruises about the body. She was placed on the car and taken to Dr. Pentland's office and cared for. The doctor found that no bones were broken, and she was driven home a few hours afterwards.

AN OLD ACQUAINTANCE

Very often we meet an old friend whose looks has changed so that we hardly know them. Some look better and some look old and uncared for. We always feel badly to see a friend going down hill in appearance for looks count for so much these days; and we enjoy seeing the person who keeps young. Being cared for is the secret of keeping young and Sageine is the secret of caring for the hair. Sageine cures dandruff, brings life and beauty into coarse dry and faded hair and makes the hair luxuriant and attractive. Sageine keeps men and women young looking and why should anyone allow themselves to become old appearing when they can get Sageine and a guarantee to find satisfactory results. Sageine is sold at W. A. Sanderson's and if it don't do all that is claimed for it your money is refunded. Be sure to go to W. A. Sanderson's for Sageine as other stores cannot supply you. Don't neglect your hair another day. Sageine is only 50c. a large bottle.
