

The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL, ONT., JULY 31, 1913

PICNIC SPEECHES.

The World in reporting the proceedings of the Conservative picnic held at Queenston Heights, when Sir Ian Hamilton and Colonel the Hon. Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia, were present, says that Mr. Claude Macdonell, M.P. for one of the Toronto ridings, in his address "used a gatling gun and took sight at the Canadian Senate, his arrows last year being aimed at the Germans." Mr. Macdonell further said in referring to the navy question, "we shall hear more of the Senate, that great bulwark of liberties of the Canadian people."

No doubt Mr. Macdonell's reference to the Senate was sarcasm. If he is in earnest and can induce the Conservative party to join hands with the Liberals the Senate can be abolished without much difficulty. The Senate is an unpopular institution. It has few friends but it would be difficult for one political party to abolish it if the other party fought for its continuance.

We believe that picnic speakers should employ their time better than telling their audience anything that might irritate Germany or any other foreign power. At the present time many nations are armed to the teeth ready to fly at each other's throats, and one never knows what a hasty word may lead to. The biggest and best men to-day are those who are engaged in furthering the arts of peace.

The British Navy will be increased by a new destroyer every two weeks for the next nine months; by a light cruiser every thirty days for the next year, and by a super-dreadnaught every forty five days for the next eighteen months. It is also worthy of note that every one of these ships will be fully manned and officered and ready to meet any possible foe the day they are put into commission. With such speedy preparation for every eventuality, it is not likely that the British people are lying awake at nights worrying because they have not got Mr. Borden's three empty dreadnaughts.

The House of Commons in England, the representatives of the people, passed a bill on the 14th of July, to abolish plural voting at elections in the British Isles. The majority for the measure was 71. Ten days later the bill was rejected by the House of Lords by a majority of 124. Surely it must be humiliating to the voters to have their will frustrated year after year by a body of men who were born lords, and therefore rulers of the realm. Canada abolished plural voting years ago.

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

The Council met on the 23rd July in the Clerk's Office. Present the Reeve and Councillors Sheardown, Sims and Tyndall.

A petition from Mr. W. J. Lawrence was read requesting the Council to build, as a local improvement, sidewalks along Roseview Avenue and Church street. The petition was received. The Clerk stated that he had received from Mr. Lawrence deeds of a strip of land eight feet wide on the east side of Yonge street, which he donated to the Village for the purpose of widening the said street.

Moved by Councillor Sims, seconded by Councillor Tyndall—"That the thanks of this Council be tendered to Mr. W. J. Lawrence for his gift of eight feet of land along the east side of Church street, and that this Council guarantees that the widening of Church street shall be continued to the north limit of Lorne Avenue, and that the centre of the said Church street shall not be altered. Also that a copy of this resolution shall be transmitted to Mr. Lawrence."

Sims—Tyndall—On motion the agreement with the C. N. O. Ry. re-sidewalk was accepted, with the exception of clause 3.

It was decided to advertise for tenders for building a quantity of cement sidewalk, the plans and specifications to be seen in the Clerk's Office.
