HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

It is generally known that we have a Horticultural Society, a brand new one in fact, but it is not so well known that it is none of your binky-dinky, pink tea kind, but a real, live, do things affair, business from the drop of the hat, and so they are going to hold a Show, mind you a Show, just to demonstrate that Richmond Hill and vicinity are aiming to be top notchers in all that pertains to flowers, plants, shrubs, etc.

What do you think of this flower show idea anyway? Do you have any idea that Richmond Hill can be made a flower centre? Well! the Society is certain sure of it, and they are going to prove it on August 6th, yes, that's the date of the show, paste that in your hat, will you please.

Now this exhibition is open to the whole world, that's going some, the prize lists are out, and you should get one from the secretary, Mr. Allen, it's an interesting document anyway and you'll notice that it is a very attractive list, and it is very likely that you have some flower or plant that you are quite sure is just a little better than your neighbours', if so try it at the Show. Anybody, anywhere, can be a member by applying to the secretary, and the exhibition is by members only.

No admission fee to the public at large to see the exhibit.
At about 3 o'clock p. m. same day there will be a large visiting Delegation from the Provincial Society which will be holding a Convention in Toronto about that time. This Delegation will be welcomed by a strong committee, then proceed to the rink where addresses will be given, then the Delegation will be taken to the several greenhouses and places of interest, afterward being entertained to refreshments in the Rink. You will get more general information about all this in the posters on the street, but the point is get it stowed away in that part of your head where it will do most good, that this is going to be some Show, sure thing.

Victoria Square

The ice cream social held on the church lawn, Saturday evening, July 25th, was well attended. After cake and ice cream was served, a concert was held in the basement of the church, Rev. Mr. Aikenhead presiding. There was a good programme presented in which the following took part:—Miss M. Comisky and Miss Helmsky, Head-ford; Mrs. Aikenhead, Miss M. Brown, the Misses Jennings, M. L. Hood, of Buttonville and The Mission Band Quartette. Proceeds of the social $21.

The return match of football between Bethesda and Victoria Square was played Saturday evening, and was won by the northern boys 1-0.
Mr. Wm. Bemrose, of Barrie, after a number of years absence has been visiting old friends here.
Miss Helmsky and Miss Comiskay, of Headford, visited with Miss G. Boynton over Sunday.

SENIOR NORMAL ENTRANCE

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIBERAL:

Dear Sir,—Permit me to make a few remarks in your paper on the results of the Senior Normal Entrance Examination at Richmond Hill this year.

Of those writing Jean Matheson, Irene McMahon and Marjorie Wright were successful in obtaining their certificates, while Grace Pratt, Mary Cooper and Mary Rumble came near the passing mark; also Nellie Page did well in some departments, the remainder did fairly well. The whole class without exception, were only one year in the Middle School work, while the course requires two years.

This year in particular two or three of the papers were unusually difficult, especially the algebra paper. Several of the pupils were recommended to take the proper time and not write for another year. I am, however, personally responsible for asking Mary Cooper, Mary Rumble and Grace Pratt to write. The first two passed in every subject, taking high marks in this difficult algebra paper, but were short of the 60 per cent. on total, while Grace Pratt obtained 30 or 40 marks more than required to make the total in all other subjects but algebra.
She is, however, the only one in the class who failed to obtain a certificate on account of the algebra paper. The others, while many did fairly well, were short of the 60 per cent. of the total in the other departments. Those three girls, and possibly Nellie Page, would have passed had the papers all been fair, or as in past years.

Thanking you for your space, I remain

Yours truly,
J. DAVIDSON.

Partially Correct

The Daily Star Monday evening and the Daily World Tuesday morning had a real estate news item in which was stated that Mr. David James, Langstaff, had sold his 150 acre farm to a Toronto syndicate for $50,000.
Mr. James stated to THE LIBERAL that the item was correct, except that the farm does not consist of 150 acres, it is not purchased by a Toronto syndicate, and the price asked for the farm was not $50,000. In other words the farm is not sold, but Mr. James has given a two weeks' option at a price not given to the public.

Elgin Mills

Miss E. Dolmage, Park Road, Toronto, was the guest of Miss L. Wright, Elgin Mills.
Miss Annie Lillian Williams, of Toronto has been spending her holidays near her old home.
Miss Myra Neilly, of Gifford spent last week with her aunt Mrs. James Cosgrove.
Mr. R. L. Williams came up from the city and visited his sister at J.
Cosgrove's.

Gormley

Mr. L. B. Schell, who recently returned from California, has bought a lot from Joseph Farmer and is preparing to build at once.
Mrs. Fanny Baker has re-modelled her home, giving it a beautiful appearance.
Mr. D. W. Heise has painted his home, giving it the appearance of a new building.
Mr. Henry Steckley received a bad fall from a load of hay bruising himself considerably, but is recovering.
Elder Samuel Baker, who is in his 91st year, has been confined to his bed for some time, and appears to be growing weaker.
The Brethren's prayer meetings on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings are well attended.
Rev. J. R. Aikenhead, of Richmond Hill made several calls in the neighborhood recently.
Mr. Frank Harvey had a bad accident a few nights ago breaking his arm.
