Mr. J. T. Anderson, piano tuner, is in town, and is prepared to do town or country work. Orders may be left at Rustic Inn.

As there are several places in the new Public School building where people might easily fall from the upper floor to the basement, it might be safer not to allow children to play in the building. In fact, until the building is insured it would be well for the trustees to erect a sign "No Trespassing on these Premises."

Ask to see the "Clay Clothes Reel," can be put any place on the back lawn. A good thing. The Richmond Hill Hardware Co.

Mr. J. O'Mara, of the United Typewriter Co., Mr. W. Megan of the Robinette Law firm and Mr. J. Doyle of Toronto, spent Sunday afternoon and evening at "Maple Villa" the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lynett.

Mr. James McLean on Saturday brought in a tin can half a dozen Army Worms from the farm of Mr. Wm. Hawstrawser, the well-known plowman, of Grahamsville, Peel County. The creeping animals which Mr. McLean left at The Liberal Office are about an inch and a quarter long, and resemble a hairless caterpillar.

A notice has been put up at Boyle's pond warning parties against bathing without proper bathing suits. If men and boys knew the rules of decency they would not require such a notice.

Garden Party

The Garden Party under the auspices of St. Mary's church (Anglican) on Mr. John Palmer's lawn Saturday evening was an enjoyable social event. The attendance was large, the proceeds amounting to $115. The grounds illuminated with electrical lights looked very pretty, and the old-time supper served on the back lawn was enjoyed by all who participated. Everybody appreciated the excellent music furnished by the home band, and the ice cream and cool drinks had a ready sale.

R. C. Picnic

An old-time picnic in aid of St. Luke's Church, Thornhill, will be held on the Abbey Farm, Langstaff, on Saturday, July 8, afternoon and evening. The grounds will be open at 3 o'clock. There will be music and dancing, as well as other attractions. Tickets 25c., children 10c. Everybody welcome.

Fined for Fast Driving

Mr. McLean and Mr. Hiltz were up before J. H. Sanderson, J. P., Friday charged with racing and furiously driving their horses through the village on Yonge street a couple of evenings previously. Several witnesses who were summoned stated that the fast driving, especially past side streets, looked dangerous. Mr. McLean pleaded guilty, but Mr. Hiltz did not admit that he was racing. Each was fined $10 and costs, amounting altogether to $28.80.

Division Court

His Honor Judge Coatsworth presided at Division Court here on Tuesday. The only cases heard were as follows: Claffey vs Fahey—Claim for $26.75 for stone work etc. Judgment for plaintiff $21.25 and costs.

Clark vs Johnston—Claim for 3 months wages at $25 a month. Judgment for plaintiff $50, and costs.

Brillinger vs Minton—Note and interest $93.25 for a cow. Defendant disputed as pedigree was not produced. Action dismissed in the absence of the plaintiff.

The next sitting of the court will be on the 12th of October.

Rod and Gun

The August number of Rod and Gun issued by W. J. Taylor Limited, Publisher, Woodstock, Ont., has appeared and is up to the usual standard of excellence maintained by this representative Canadian magazine of outdoor life. The cover cut is an attractive one and illustrates a big catch of tuna in Nova Scotia where the sport of catching this big fish with rod and line is growing in favor. The contents include many interesting stories and articles, among them another canoe story "To Moose Factory by Canoe" which in so far as the territory covered is concerned forms a continuation of the account given in last month's issue of a Trip from Lake Temiscaming to Lake Abitibi. Bonnycastle Dale gives a graphic description of "Wild Fowling with the Kwakiutls" and the issue includes stories of interest to the general reader as well as articles and departments containing special information for the sportsman.

Maple

Green—Reaman

The wedding took place on Wednesday evening, July 22, of Miss Flora Josephine Green, youngest daughter of Mrs. Ellen Green of 283 Pacific avenue, Toronto, and Prof. George Elmore Reaman, M. A., son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Reaman, Richmond Hill, Ontario. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. R. J. Teleaven at the home of the bride. The bride was given away by Mr. J. A. Maitland, her brother-in-law. The matron of honor was Mrs. J. A. Maitland, a sister of the bride. Rev. Fred. T. Graham, B. A., Barwash Hall, Toronto, was groomsmen. The bride wore a gown of cream chambray, with opalescent trimming, veil and orange blossoms. Little Marjorie Bunting was flower girl, carrying a basket of pink carnations, Miss Edith Burill of Brantford played the wedding march. During the signing of the register Mrs. Bunting of Montrose Avenue sang "Because." After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Reaman left for Ithica, Mich. The bride's going away dress was of golden brown silk poplin, with hat of cream lace and brown plume. Among the guests were the Misses Florence and Edith Burill of Brantford, Miss Susie Bateman, Harrison; Mr. Edward Bateman, Chatham, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green and daughter of Brantford, Mr. and Mrs. J. Rumble, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ness, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Reaman, of Richmond Hill. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful cameo brooch set with pearls. The bride and groom were the recipients of many presents, mostly of cut glass and silver.
