

In Memoriam

BOYLE—In loving memory of our darling, Garnet Oliver Boyle, who departed this life at Newton Brook, Oct. 2, 1913.
Tender shepherd Thou hast Stilled
Now Thy little lamb's brief weeping;
O how peaceful pure and mild,
In Thy loving arms 'tis sleeping,
And no sigh of anguish sore,
Heaves that little Bosom more,
Mother and Father.

Anniversary services were preached in the Methodist church on Sunday Rev. J. R. Aikenhead preached in the morning and Rev. Peter Bryce of Toronto in the evening. There were large congregations present at both services.
On Tuesday evening the entertainment given by the Toronto artists was both interesting and amusing. The "Sewing Circle" along the line of missionary work, in which a number of local characters were introduced, created much laughter. The singing by Misses Emma and Belle Thompson and others was much appreciated by the large audience. The receipts were $70.

A Confirmation service was held in St. Stephen's church on Sunday afternoon when Rt. Rev. Bishop Reeves preached the sermon.

The choir of St. Andrew's church took the musical part of anniversary services at Laskay last Sunday morning and evening.

There was quite an exciting time in the village one day last week, in getting some wild cattle purchased from Mr. P. McNaughton to the station for shipment. One of the animals had to be shot, to prevent damage.

Care of the Ewe and Lamb

The Live Stock Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa has issued a very practical bulletin on "The care of the Ewe and Lamb". It constitutes a shepherd's presentation of the details of management of the breeding flock, more particularly during the winter and spring months. It takes up, among other things, parturition, feeding, docking, castration, the raising of pet lambs, and the simple and more serious ailments and accidents met with in the ordinary flock, concluding with a series of paragraphs termed "Leaves from the note-book of a successful Shepherd."

The bulletin, which is helpfully illustrated was prepared by T. Reginald Aikell, who has charge of the Sheep and Goat Division of the Live Stock Branch. It is designated as Pamphlet No. 5 of the Live Stock Branch. Copies are available to those who apply for them to the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Canadian Pictorial

Its pictures pertaining to the war are alone worth the money.

This elegant magazine delights the eye while it instructs the mind concerning the picturesque doings of an interesting and highly entertaining world.

Each issue is literally crowded with the highest quality of photogravures, many of them worth framing.

It is the most popular "Pick-me-up" on the waiting room tables of the leading doctors throughout the Dominion, and in the big public libraries it is literally "used up" by the many who are attracted by its entertaining and beautiful pages.

It's a "love at sight" publication and it has departmental features of great interest to the young woman and the home maker.

Of it—just to quote one man's praise from among thousands—the late Rt. Hon. Lord Strathcona, wrote: "The 'Canadian Pictorial' is a publication which, if I may be permitted to say so, is a credit to Canada." (Signed) Strathcona.

On trial to New Subscribers—Twelve months for only 65 cents.

The "Canadian Pictorial" is published by The "Pictorial" Publishing Co., "Witness" Block, Montreal, Canada. Try it for a year.

Rod and Gun

Although the opening article in the October number of Rod and Gun in Canada magazine published by W. J. Taylor, Ltd., Woodstock, Ont., is descriptive of a notable Canadian Canoe Race in which canoe men racing on the Lievre and Ottawa Rivers covered over two hundred miles in sixty hours, the table of contents shows a predominance of big game hunting stories. "How 1913 Turned Out Lucky for One Bull Moose" is the story of a moose hunt in Quebec Wilds; "An Unusual Hunting Trip" describes an American sportsman's outing after moose in New Brunswick forests; while "Moose Hunting in the Riding Mountains of Manitoba" tells of a winter hunt in that province. "Trapped" is an amusing story of how a Western sportsman outwitted the R. N. W. M. P. representative. Other stories and the regular departments make up an interesting big game issue for Canadian sportsmen.
