Epworth League

The programme next Monday evening November 16, will be given by the officers of the Toronto Central District. Good addresses and good music are assured. A cordial invitation is extended to all friends.

Elementary Recital

An interesting demonstration of Elementary work was given by eleven of Mr. Newton's younger pupils in his home studio last Saturday evening. Several of the children participating had received less than a term's tuition but all showed commendable steadiness and a good grasp of the fundamental principles of touch and tone. Miss Carol Innes sang two little children's songs very prettily and several of the pupils contributed recitations and piano duets and trios. A recital of the work the Primary pupils are doing will be given on the evening of November 21st.

PROVINCIAL PLOWING MATCH

Two Thousand Attended the Match

Fully two thousand farmers attended the second annual plowing match of the Ontario Plowmen's Association held Nov. 6, at Major Joseph Kilgour's home "Sunnybrook Farm." It was a red-letter day for agriculturists and especially for those of the Townships of King and Vaughan, whose representatives proved their metal in the first act of agricultural industry by carrying away the finest prizes of the match, namely, the silver cups presented by the Canadian Farm Association and G. S. Henry, M.L.A., respectively, which were won outright by Cameron Walkington of King.

Twenty-five acres were plowed by 33 teams and after the judging the judges pointed out to the competitors and the visitors their reasons for awarding the prizes to the winners.

On behalf of the plowmen present J. Lockie Wilson presented Mrs. Kilgour with $118 to be sent to her sister, Miss Helen Grand, who has established a hospital for wounded soldiers in the deep sea fisheries building at Folkestone, England. Mrs. Kilgour suitably replied and congratulated the plowmen for the patriotic spirit which had prompted their action.

PRIZE WINNERS

The winners were:
Class 1, in sod, open to the world—C. Walkington, 1; C. Clubine, 2; S. Tyndall, 3; B. Kennedy, 4.

Class 2, for those who never won a first prize—C. Young, 1; S. Baird, 2; W. L. Clark, 3; J. B. Pigott, 4.

Class 3, jointer plows—G. J. Grieve, 1; D. Tran, 2; C. Henderson, 3; C. Wagstaff, 4.

Class 4, boys under 18—F. Hostrauser, 1; S. Watson, 2; H. Coating, 3; C. Hunt, 4.
