The Club Treated

The members of the Richmond Hill Gun Club, and a few other friends, by invitation, spent a pleasant time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Curtis Wednesday evening of last week. After admiring the young bear, captured by Mr. Curtis in the recent hunt, which has been neatly mounted by a taxidermist, a couple of hours were spent in playing games, singing the bush songs, and relating events of the past season. Refreshments were served, and before separating, the captain, Mr. Pratt, expressed the thanks of the club for the kind hospitality of the host and hostess.

The by-law was defeated by the three-fifths clause in about a dozen places, and was defeated by a straight vote in Bradford, Bala and Simcoe.

Card of Thanks

Allow me through this medium to express my sincere thanks to the ladies and gentlemen who gave me such generous support at the election for Vaughan Councilors on Monday, 4th inst. Although not elected, I feel grateful to my supporters, and for the expressions of good will extended me by many electors.

Yours truly
W. O. McDonald.

Maple, Jan. 5, 1915.

Musical Event

A musical treat is in store for the music loving people of Richmond Hill and vicinity, in the Methodist church next Wednesday evening, when the York Choral Society, 80 voices, will give their concert in aid of the Belgian Relief Fund. Mr. F. Converse Smith, the popular violinist, will give a number of selections, and should Mr. W. E. Capps be absent, owing to a recent illness, his place will be filled by a worthy substitute. It is hoped the audience will be seated by 8.15, as the doors will be closed during each number. Come and enjoy the musical treat. See programme on another page.

Letter of Thanks

The following letter has been received by the Treasurer of the Methodist Sunday School from the Hon. Treasurer of the Belgian Relief Fund: Dear Mr. Hume:—

We have your kind letter of the 2nd inst., enclosing a Money Order for $56, from the children of your Methodist Sunday School for the relief of Belgian children, the children of your school deciding to do this instead of receiving Xmas gifts themselves. Will you kindly thank the dear children very heartily in our name for their kindness as well as for their splendid contribution.

With many thanks to yourself, I am,
Yours faithfully,
Hector Prud'homme,
Honorary Treasurer.

Resolution of Sympathy

The following resolution has been forwarded by Richmond Lodge, to the family of the late Mr. Alex. Moodie:—

Dear Friends,—On behalf of the officers and members of Richmond Lodge, No. 23, A. F. & A. M., of which Lodge your beloved father, was an honored member, we take this opportunity of extending our heartfelt sympathy to you in your recent bereavement. Although he was far past the allotted time of man, we know it is hard to suffer the loss of a kind father. As brother masons, we esteemed him for his regular habits, his sturdy constitution, his sunny disposition, and his cheerful spirit. He was a true friend, and his devotion to those whom he thought worthy of his friendship would make a bright chapter in any life. We had reason to regard him as a kind and indulgent father, and to his friends he was the soul of fellowship.

We shall miss him in our Lodge meetings, but his memory shall form another cord to draw us to the Grand Lodge above. To his sons and daughters let us say we profited by his worthy example.
G. Cowie, W.M. G. F. Allen, S.D.
