

Presented Gifts

To Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Reaman on leaving the city:

A social time was enjoyed in Queen Street Methodist Church on Wednesday evening, May 12th. Many of the congregation were present and annual reports of the different departments of the church were given by W. G. Anderson, Capt. Crawford and W. H. Warren. John Nicolle gave an excellent address on his recent trip to California.

During the past few months, G. E. Reaman, M.A., and Mrs. Reaman have been active church workers, giving of their time and talents in a cheerful, helpful way. Now that they are leaving, the congregation felt indebted to them and expressed its feelings in farewell gifts. Mrs. Reaman's singing has been a splendid feature, and her social qualities made her a special favorite. She was remembered with a beautiful gold bracelet-watch, Mr. Reaman receiving a silk umbrella. Both gifts were suitably engraved. J. G. Elliott, editor of Kingston "British Whig," made the presentation address, and Mrs. W. H. Warren, President of the Ladies Association, and Mrs. John Evans of the Choir tendered the gifts. Mr. Reaman made a happy reply saying that in no church had he met with more cordiality and friendship than in Queen St. Church. They would always remember the friends and the good-fellowship found in Kingston. If they had been of service they were repaid many fold by the pleasant associations with the church people. Rev. G. I. Campbell closed the meeting with a few helpful words.

During the evening songs were rendered by Mrs. Reaman, Mrs. Evans and Harry Aggrove; Miss Eileen Wright and Mr. Reaman being the accompanists.

Maple

The house and the store belonging to Mr. J. Grey were almost destroyed by fire last Friday afternoon. Soon after the alarm was given quite a number were on the spot and managed to get the flames under control, but not before considerable damage had been done.

Mr. A. Killough has sold his farm to Dr. Routley, and will have a sale of stock and farm implements next Saturday.

Rev. Dr. Hazelwood of Toronto preached a stirring sermon on Social Reform, to a large congregation last Sunday evening.

The members of St. Andrew's church met last Saturday and cleaned up the church grounds, and made flower beds, making the appearance of the church and surroundings more attractive.

Miss Edith Campbell of Toronto spent last week visiting with friends in the village.

Mr. Leeds Richardson, J.P., who had been in failing health during the past few years, passed away on Monday in his 70th year. Interment took place in Maple Cemetery yesterday.

Thornhill

The Thornhill Red Cross Auxiliary will hold its first meeting at the home of Mrs. Langstaff, Thornhill Springs, Friday evening, May 28, at 7:30 o'clock. All the ladies of Thornhill and vicinity are cordially invited to be there.

The Women's Institute of Thornhill met at the home of Mrs. A. Hall on Thursday, May 20th. Reports of the years work were given by Mrs. D. James, Mrs. Carruthers and Mrs. A. Thompson. The president, Mrs. Moyle, in a few well chosen words reviewed the progress of the year, and the outlook for the future. The following officers were elected: Pres., Mrs. Moyle; 1st Vice-Pres., Mrs. Burton; 2nd Vice-Pres., Mrs. Martin; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Carruthers; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. A. Thompson; Treasurer, Mrs. D. James. Miss Marjory Farr favored the members with a couple of piano solos. At the close a dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Hall, and the social hour was much enjoyed. The annual meeting will be held June 15th, at the home of Mrs. O. Bales. Miss Collins of Ancaster and Mrs. Brethour of Burford will address this meeting.
