

LOCALS

The Dominion Government has appointed Monday, October 11, as Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. Douglas Read of Toronto, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. L. B. Heise, Victoria Square.

Mrs. J. A. Mortson and two children are spending a few weeks in Ameliasburg, Prince Edward.

John, the officer for Madame Jarley, is a character of world wide reputation. Watch him closely on the 29th.

Mr. Milton Wellwood, son of Rev. N. Wellwood of this village, has joined the Mississauga Horse, and is now in active training in Toronto.

Mr. H. Harland Palmer and Mr. Ernest D. Palmer are at Niagara Military Camp where they are training for Overseas Service.

The Golden Rule Series of Readers, Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4 are in stock at 'The Liberal Office.' These books are recommended by the Minister of Education for use in the Public and Separate schools of Ontario.

Next Sunday being Rally Day in Sunday Schools the pastor, Rev. J. R. Aikenhead, will preach a "Ship" sermon to children in the Methodist Church at 11 a.m. Sermon in the evening from the Book of Daniel.

A very pretty little story appeared in the Sunday School paper "Onward," Sept. 18. The title is "Her Soldier Letter," and the writer is Gertrude D. Aikenhead, daughter of Rev. J. R. Aikenhead of this village.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Savage and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Savage motored to Collingwood Saturday, spent over Sunday with Mrs. W. D. Atkinson and Mr. Donald Atkinson, and returned home Monday.

The Ontario Railway Board on Tuesday ordered the Toronto Railway Company to have the extension of its Yonge street line to Farnham avenue completed and cars running by December 1, next.

The Trustees have this week had the well thoroughly cleaned at the Public School. Citizens generally should look carefully at their wells this fall as owing to the large amount of surface water the danger of typhoid will be greater than usual.

The secretary of the Horticultural Society has completed the prize lists, and those who were successful at the recent Flower and Vegetable Exhibition will receive their prizes by presenting their cards to the treasurer, Mr. J. H. Sanderson.

One hundred pupils are now enrolled in the High School. As several of the old pupils return soon, the attendance this term will reach, if not exceed, 105. It looks like a fourth teacher, an additional room, and upper school work in the near future. The Board of Education have sent for additional seats to meet the influx.

An interesting letter from Pte. Reay Grant, son of Mrs. (Rev.) Grant, formerly of Richmond Hill, appeared in last Friday's Daily News. Reay is a member of the Field Ambulance Corps with the First Contingent in France. He advises young men to enlist, not only because it may "bring credit to your country, your county, your home, but to yourself."

Troop Orders

Richmond Hill and Thornhill Troop Boy Scouts meet on Saturday, 2:30 p. m., at Lot 40, (weather permitting). Prospective Scouts invited for enrollment. Ernest E. Cottingham, Scoutmaster.

King and Vaughan Match

The annual plowing match of the King and Vaughan Branch of the Ontario Plowmen's Association will be held on the farm of Mr. Cameron Walkington, lot 1, Con. 4, King, on Tuesday the 9th of November. The officers and directors are arranging for a large list of good prizes.

Piano Tuning

Mr. J. T. Anderson, piano tuner, West Toronto, will be in Richmond Hill the latter part of the present week or early next week. Orders for work may be left at Rustic Inn, or at Grice's store, Thornhill.

School Board

The Board of Education met Wednesday evening of last week. The Board decided to equip another room and engage a fifth teacher for the Public School. Applications for teacher will be received by Mr. McDonald, secretary, up to Sept. 25. Duties to commence 1st of October. Mr. J. A. Greene was appointed a member of the Public Library Board, succeeding Mr. Crowhurst who resigned.

Harness Shop

It will be seen by adv. elsewhere in this paper that Mr. W. R. Robinson has purchased the harness and saddlery business recently carried on by Mr. Trench. Hereafter the business will be carried on in the Moodie Store. Mr. Robinson will keep a full line of articles usually kept in a first-class harness shop, and he solicits a generous patronage from Richmond Hill and surrounding neighborhoods.

Boy Scouts

A troop of Boy Scouts, recognized and controlled by the Headquarters of the Boy Scout Movement in Canada, is being formed between the Richmond Hill and Thornhill districts. Boys 12 years of age and upwards desirous of joining the troop are requested to send or give their names to Ernest E. Cottingham, Scoutmaster, care of The Rectory, Thornhill.

Died in Action

A cablegram received by Samuel Grainger of Newmarket conveyed the information that his son, Pte. Carl Grainger, attached to the artillery in France, had met his death while in action. Young Grainger had been in active service for more than six months and had taken part in a number of severe engagements. He was 22 years of age, and was one of the first to enlist when the call came.

"On the Field of Honour"

The publishers of The Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal, are making a strong bid for that beautiful picture, full of pathos, entitled "On the Field of Honour." It is assumed the publishers of the Family Herald have in mind using it as a presentation plate. If that is so there is a great treat in store for readers of The Family Herald and Weekly Star this autumn. In past years The Family Herald of Montreal has been noted not only for the wonderful excellence of that journal but for many beautiful pictures it has presented to its readers. The Family Herald has a name for succeeding in anything it undertakes, and we feel sure if it is humanly possible to secure "On the Field of Honour" that the publishers will succeed in getting it. "On the Field of Honour" is attracting widespread attention in Europe.

Red Cross News

The Red Cross Auxiliary will hold its regular meeting on Monday, Sept. 27th, at 4 o'clock sharp in the Public School. Those members who have knitting are requested to bring it. Those who do not knit will be supplied with bandages to roll, so that no time may be lost while the necessary business is discussed. Everybody come.

The Red Cross Auxiliary are very grateful to Mr. Innes and Mr. Campbell for two new bandage rollers.

The Girls Branch of the Red Cross Auxiliary will meet hereafter at 2:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoons in the Public School. The next meeting will be Oct. 2nd.

Will every member of both branches of the society bring as many pieces of clean strong cotton 22 or 24 inches square? An endless amount of this cotton is needed to wrap surgical supplies and there is none on hand.

The Red Cross Auxiliary have made the final arrangements with the world-renowned Madame Jarley to exhibit her marvellous collection of wax figures, in Masonic Hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 29, at 8 o'clock. Madame Jarley is giving her exhibition in aid of our local Red Cross Fund. Her remarkable exhibition consists of five chambers. The first chamber represents characters from song and story, and includes the immortal Pickwick and Mrs. Bardell, also the Ancient Mariner, Rip Van Winkle, and many others. The chamber of Nursery Rhymes is of particular interest to the kiddies. In it will be seen, Little Jack Horner, Mother Goose, Little Miss Muffet, &c., &c. The chamber of Beauty contains Sleeping Beauty and the Prince, John Alden and Priscilla, &c. The Shakespearian chamber contains many imposing figures as Henry VIII., Lady MacBeth, Queen Elizabeth, and others. Last, but not least, there will be a chamber of Horrors, which alone, is worth the price of admission. In it are The Cruel Nurse Maid, Captain Kidd and His Victim, and the Ruffian Disarmed by a Smile, &c., &c. The most remarkable feature of Madame Jarley's wax figures, is that they are fitted with mechanical contrivances, by which, when they are wound up by the attendants, Peter and John, they go through characteristic movements, which make the figures very life-like. Another feature of the evening will be a patriotic chorus, conducted by Mr. Newton.

The Band will be in attendance. Come and have the time of your life, and help the good cause—Red Cross Work.

Omitted

In giving the list of floral offerings placed on Mr. Sanderson's casket two were omitted in error. Both were beautiful sprays from Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lawrence, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gamble.
