RICHMOND HILL, ONT., OCT. 7, 1915

York Mills

Over the signatures of Mrs. A. J. VanNostrand, Pres.; and Miss Gibson, Secy., invitations are being sent out on behalf of the York Township Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society for a Birthday Party at the home of Mrs. W. Fraser, York Mills, on Saturday, the 23rd of October, from 3 o'clock to 9 p.m. The following lines will explain the object of the gathering:

"O come to our party and make it your own
By a payment of pennies for years that have flown,
But if you can't come, why this bag we propose
Will hold all the coin you may wish to enclose."

Gormley

Mr. C. H. Keys has sold out his store and business to Mr. John Wilson, grandson of the late John McKenzie of Victoria Square.

After a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether the farmers have finally completed their harvest, and are now busy putting their corn into the silos, and getting in their second crop of clover of which there is an abundance.

Every man that wants work, finds plenty of it now since the fine weather has set in.

Mr. Clarence Doner is again taking up farming on the old home, and is anxiously looking forward to the day when he may have an help mate.

Quite a number of our young men have gone to Kindersley, Sask., for the harvest and threshing.

The potato crop in this locality is almost a total failure, and the farmers are plowing them under.

The Tankard church of Markham district adhere to the Saviour's words where he says "The Poor have the Gospel preached to them," and have an appointment at the Industrial Home every six weeks. The appointment was filled last Sunday by Mr. H. R. Heise.
