

Victoria Square

What might have been a more serious accident occurred on Saturday night last when the autos of Mr. Ross Klinck and Dr. Kelly of Buttonville came together near the corner, almost in front of Brown's store. Klinck was on the wrong side of the road, and apparently became confused by the lights from the store and the lights of the approaching auto. The right side of both autos suffered, both axles being bent, lamps smashed and other parts injured. G. A. M. Davison of Unionville was called by phone, and after assistance from those present succeeded in getting both autos to their respective homes. Fortunately no serious injuries were sustained, but Dr. Kelly was somewhat shaken up by the impact.

Mr. Mert Brown of the Sterling Bank, Monkton Rd., Miss Nellie Jennings of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boynton of Toronto were home for Thanksgiving.

Mr. Mark Watson, Mr. John Watson, Miss Watson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Nichol of York and Miss L. Williamson of Toronto were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Stoutenburgh on Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph Cober on the 3rd line passed away on Thursday last. Mrs. Cober had been ill for some time but had partially recovered when death came suddenly. Interment took place at Heise's Hill Cemetery on Sunday morning. A large gathering of relatives and friends attended the service. Mr. Cober and four children survive. The family have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

The Thanksgiving services on Sunday were well attended. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and Rev. Mr. McKee had charge of the meeting.

Mr. J. E. Rowbotham having sold his home and shop to Mrs. Elizabeth Boynton has removed with his daughter, Miss L. Rowbotham to Stouffville. As Mr. Rowbotham has been in business at The Square for many years, and has been one of our best citizens, he will be greatly missed in church and lodge circles. Miss Rowbotham was an active member of the S.S., League and Church, so that her departure will be regretted by her friends. We wish them success in their new abode.
