RICHMOND HILL, ONT., DEC. 6, 1915

Maple

The Public Library Board have decided to spend a considerable sum in purchasing new books for the Library.

The young people of Hope and the vicinity gave an oyster supper on Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Mr. H. Rumble, in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Rumble.

Mr. Isaac Watson and Miss Jennie Jackson were quietly married last Wednesday evening by the Rev. Mr. Richardson, of King City.

Miss L. Lovering and Miss Holmes, of Toronto, spent the week-end at the Parsonage.

The funeral of an infant of Mr. and Mrs. P. Jones took place here last Friday afternoon.

Mr. A. Killough, of Richmond Hill, has purchased the house and land lately owned by Mr. D. Watson, and intends to return here with his family in the near future.

Victoria Square

The death of Mrs. Ed. Sanderson removes one of the oldest residents of this vicinity. The deceased had been failing for some years, and the end was not unexpected. The funeral service took place on Saturday last, being conducted by Revs. Wellwood and Aikenhead. The late Mrs. Sanderson, whose maiden name was Isabella Grundy, is the last of that name residing here. She is survived by her husband, three daughters (Mrs. Steve Lawson, Mrs. Merritt, of Winnipeg, and Mrs. Belle, at home, and two sons, R. E., of Victoria Square, and Fred, of Exeter. This is the second bereavement the family have sustained in a month, when the eldest son, Charles, of Bethesda passed away. The family have the sympathy of all in their sorrow.

Mr. T. Lyons is now established in the shop formerly run by Mr. J. E. Rowbotham.

Holder of tickets for the Red Cross automobile will be anxiously awaiting this Friday evening, when the lucky ticket will be drawn.
