Lovering, and the Wedding March was played by Mrs. A. G. Mortson. Only the immediate friends of the family were present. The bride was unattended, and was given away by her father, Little Lene Harris, niece of the bride, acted as flower-girl. The bride was dressed in cream silk, with bridal veil, and carried a bouquet of carnations and fern. Her going-away costume was of blue broadcloth. The happy couple took the evening train for Barrie, and after their return will reside at Hope.
