FINDS IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS A CURE FOR HIS RHEUMATISM.

States Out of His Own Experience That Dodd's Kidney Pills Are a Sure Relief From Pain.

Greenfield, Queen's Co., N.S., March 27th, (Special).—"To anyone who suffers from rheumatism I say: 'Take Dodd's Kidney Pills. They will be sure to give you a release from pain.' This is the message of Cornelius Hirtle, a well known farmer living near here. Mr. Hirtle suffered from rheumatism for four years and found a cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I was in bad shape for four years," Mr. Hirtle says in giving his experience. "My back and hips troubled me so much that I was not able to do much without suffering. I also had stiffness in the joints, my muscles cramped and I felt heavy and sleepy after meals. I had a bitter taste in my mouth, especially in the morning. My appetite was fitful and I was often dizzy.

"I suffered from shortness of breath, I was often dizzy and I was depressed and low spirited.

"I took six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and they did me so much good that I am recommending them to all my friends. They are better than any doctor."

Every one of Mr. Hirtle's symptoms was a symptom of kidney disease. That's why Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him.

SARAJEVO MURDER A GODSEND.
Dr. Liebknecht Speaks Out in German Parliament.

The Cologne Gazette gives the following account of the turbulent scene which occurred in the German Reichstag recently while Dr. Karl Liebknecht, Socialist, denounced the demoralizing effects of the war: "Dr. Liebknecht, discussing the educational budget, said: 'Education to-day serves to strengthen militarism and capitalism. You act as if you wish to throw open to the people the road to education, but that is only because capitalism requires soldiers. The teaching of history is systematically distorted for the purpose of introducing certain political convictions into the schools, and also hatred against England. The militarizing of schools converts them into training stables for war. You educate your children to be war machines. With regard to war, their ideals seem to be embodied in poisoned gas bombs.

"In the schools it should be taught not only that the murder of Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria at Sarajevo was an incident which should inspire horror, but it should also be taught that there were wide circles in Germany and Austria in which this murder was regarded as a veritable Godsend."

"At these words, a wild uproar arose in the House, the president vigorously ringing his bell. Dr. Liebknecht shouted: 'It is the truth; it is the whole truth.' The president thereupon called him to order and the majority of the members left the Chamber. (Loud applause) to say 'Dr. Liebknecht went on: 'Just as in the thirty years' war, so the present war has a demoralizing and baneful effect on education. As long as our educational ideal centres in a death struggle, the liberation of the working classes cannot come.' The president for the second time called the speaker to order, but he continued: 'The workers themselves must tackle the job of education. The troops must not fight merely in the trenches; they ought to lower their arms and direct them against the common enemy.'

"The president again rang his bell. Liebknecht tried to continue, but the president kept on ringing and said, addressing the members, 'I beg that all those present who still wish to hear Dr. Liebknecht will stand up.' As only Socialists stood up, Liebknecht was forbidden to speak further, the majority present loudly applauding this decision. Liebknecht, however, continued in his efforts to speak, but could not make himself heard owing to the terrific commotion. As he was leaving the rostrum there were loud shouts of 'Out with him.'"

OLD HOMES CHANGE HANDS.

War Has Forced Thousands in England to Give Up Estates.

Thousands of stately homes in England are changing hands, according to the real estate authorities. The old owners have in many instances been forced by increased taxes to seek more moderate places, and some of the estates are being purchased by persons who have profited by war contracts.

There is talk of wholesale migration and predictions that country life will undergo a revolution. Many of the estates may even be cut up and parcelled out among disbanded soldiers.

In discussing the effects of the war on the landed gentry, Francis Hirst, a widely known economist, said that it was only a natural result, and that these people would feel the pinch more than the poorer classes for many years to come.

"The mere economic effect of the loss of hundreds of thousands of young men in the prime of life and vigor is almost incalculable," said Mr. Hirst. "We may safely assume that by November we had lost through the war about a tenth of all the wealth we possessed before.

"The present public expenditure of the Government is believed to be about equal to the whole of the private incomes of the inhabitants of the United Kingdom put together.

"We are now adding to the national debt every five or six weeks what we added during the three years of the Boer War."

GIRL'S ARM SHOWS ROMANCE.

Carries the Names of Loved Ones Tattooed on Her. There is a boom in tattooing in the East end, according to Edward Lovett of the Folk Lore Society, says London Tit-Bits. The boom is not among soldiers and sailors, but among girls of the East end, it being a rapidly growing fashion, when a local belle walks out with a young man, to have his name tattooed on her arm. Mr. Lovett gives the following amusing description of a scene which he recently witnessed in the shop of a friend in the East end, who, among other avocations, is a tattooing artist:

Two girls entered the shop. One of them took off her jacket, turned up her sleeve, at the same time sitting down near a table on which was a small electric apparatus. The artist then made some design on the arm with the electric needle. When the operation was finished Mr. Lovett asked if he might see what the design was. He was allowed to inspect the arm, upon which, near the elbow, were the words: "I love Joe Smith."

"Of course, it wasn't Joe Smith," says Mr. Lovett, "but that is a detail." Naturally Mr. Lovett wanted to know what happened should the girl wish to get rid of this somewhat plain statement. "That is quite easy," replied the tattooist. "Should the girl change her mind, and find that she loves Bill Scroggins instead of Joe Smith, I touch up the old name and convert it into a new design, usually a bunch of flowers. It is a bit difficult at times, especially with a long name, though I generally manage it somehow. Why, one arm I know has twenty-seven names on it. At present it has 'I love' at the top, then follow twenty-six bunches of flowers, finishing up with the last love, say, for instance, Bill Adams."

"What a romance," remarks Mr. Lovett, "is locked up in that arm!"

National Preparedness does not come from guns and dreadnoughts, but from men who are fit for the day's work.

The making of men is a question of food and rational exercise. You can't build stalwart men out of an unbalanced "ration." Shredded Wheat Biscuit contains all the material needed for building the perfect human body. It is the whole wheat grain made digestible by steam-cooking, shredding and baking. One or more Shredded Wheat Biscuits for breakfast with milk or cream makes a man fit for work or play. It is ready-cooked and ready-to-serve.

Minard's Liniment Relieves Neuralgia.

Stole the Soldiers' Socks. At the Central Criminal Court in London, England, before Judge Rentoul, Herbert Read, 41, carman, was sentenced to eighteen months' imprisonment with hard labor and John Crack, carman, to six months' imprisonment in the second division, for stealing and receiving one thousand pairs of socks which were in course of conveyance from a railway station, to an army clothing depot.

To whom it may concern: This is to certify that I have used MINARD'S LINIMENT myself as well as prescribed it in my practice where a liniment was required and have never failed to get the desired effect. C. A. KING, M.D.

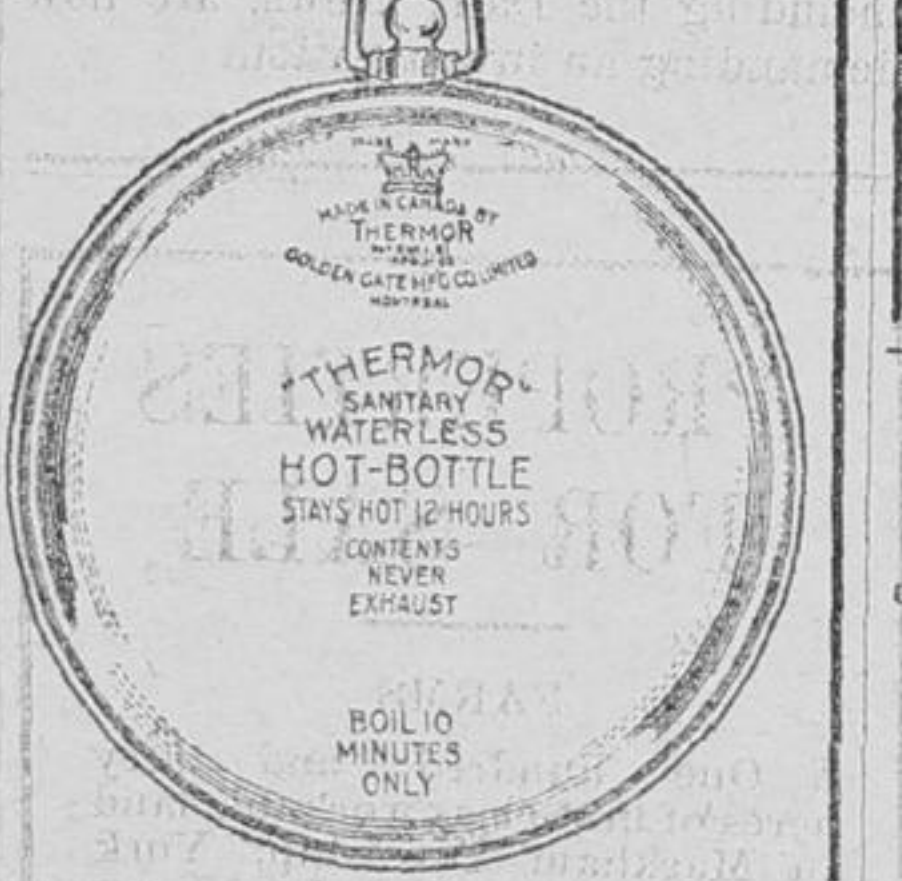

The truth cannot be burned, beheaded or crucified. A lie on the throne is a lie still; and a lie on the throne is on the way to defeat, and a truth in the dungeon is on the way to victory.

THERMOR Waterless Hot Bottle

It is made of metal, nickel plated, of a convenient size.

Simply boil the "Thermor" for ten minutes only (no longer) and it stays hot for full twelve hours at an even temperature of 125 deg. Recommended by physicians on account of the steady heat and sanitary metal case.

No trouble—no filling—no danger of scalding the hands—no leaks—no expense and one purchase lasts a lifetime.

In sickness, such as Neuralgia, La Grippe, Rheumatism, Neuritis, Inflammation—in fact all aches and pains, the "Thermor" is invaluable. As a bed-warmer and a foot-warmer it has no equal.

The "Thermor" measures 8 1/2" across and is 1 1/2" thick, yet it weighs less than a filled two quart rubber bottle. The price is $4.00 sent Postpaid anywhere and sold under an absolute guarantee from the makers.

Canadian Woods Only.

Not very long ago Lord Shaughnessy announced that so far as possible Canadian woods only would be used in connection with the construction and interior finish of all Canadian Pacific buildings, railway cars, etc., an announcement which was hailed with great satisfaction by the lumber interests of the Dominion. That such a programme was possible was known to the forestry experts who have supplied to the various Canadian Government exhibits in Europe and the United States magnificent samples of hardwoods with beautiful grains and attractive finish. It would seem that these woods are not being exploited sufficiently, but, no doubt, now that it is known there will be a good demand for it, manufacturers will give the matter greater consideration.

Growing Old.

They had been engaged to be married fifteen years, and still he had not mustered courage enough to ask her to name the happy day. One evening he called in a peculiar frame of mind, and asked her to sing something tender and touching—something that would "move him." She sat down at the piano and sang, "Darling, I am growing old!"

Ever Eat Grape Nuts?
(Made in Canada)

There's a vast army of physical and mental workers who do not.

One reason—its delicious nut-like flavor.

Another—it is easily and quickly digested—generally in about one hour.

But the big reason is—Grape-Nuts, besides having delicious taste, supplies all the rich nutriment of whole wheat and malted barley, including the "vital" mineral salts necessary for building brain, nerve and muscle.

Always ready to eat direct from the package, Grape-Nuts with cream or good milk is a well balanced ration—the utmost in sound nourishment.
