Patterson S. C. Dissolved

The ratepayers of S. S. No. 19, Vaughan, known as Patterson school, a mile west of Richmond Hill, have held several meetings as to the advisability of repairing their present schoolhouse, erecting a new building, or dissolving the section. On Wednesday of last week, by a very close vote, they decided to dissolve, the eastern part to be added to Richmond Hill Union S. S., the western portion to Maple, and the balance at the south to be annexed to Carrville. One regrettable feature about the arrangement is that some of the ratepayers are bitterly opposed to dividing the section.

Solodinsky Must Pay

Judge Denton in the County Court awarded Nathaniel Baker $200 and his wife $300 in their joint suit against S. Solodinsky, an East Gwillimbury farmer, for $1,500 damages for injuries received when they were struck by the defendant's automobile last fall on Yonge Street.

Home Garden Contest

During the coming summer the Local Branch of the Department of Agriculture is putting on what is to be known as the Home Garden Contest. This contest is among the farm boys of the county, preferably the boys who have just finished public school.

These boys will be provided with the seed for the following garden crops—corn, cabbage, peas, beans, onions, spinach, radish, lettuce, pursnips, beets, carrots, salsify and strawberries as well as a small booklet telling how each crop should be grown. A blue print with the plan of the garden is also supplied and contestants will follow plan as outlined. These gardens will be inspected several times during the summer and liberal cash prizes will be given to the five boys having the best gardens.

The object of the contest is to provide more up-to-date methods of raising vegetables on the farm and it is to be hoped that the boys will take advantage of the scheme. There is only a limited number of gardens to be in this contest. The first boys to apply will be the ones to get the seed, until the number of contestants which we have seed for is reached, so any farm boys interested should apply at once to J. C. Steckley, Department of Agriculture, Newmarket.

Facts for Milk Producers

The HINMAN MILKER will produce 50% more milk with 50% less labor in the same time, and that with a two unit machine and equipment costing $140, (without power which is only 1 h. p. required), proof.

A year ago Mr. W. C. Grubbe of Thistleton was shipping four cans daily and paying a man good monthly wages to help. Last summer he put in a HINMAN MILKER and this year he has shipped six cans daily, without any help.

Mr. Frank Baker of Stouffville milked thirteen cows in twenty nine minutes one evening a few weeks ago.

Mr. W. J. Currey of Newmarket ships five cans daily, and would not take $500 for his if he could not replace it.

Dr. Irwin of Weston thinks every man shipping milk should have a HINMAN.

Why such men as Mr. Flatt of Hamilton, Mr. Harris of Moresby Stock and Jersey Farm, Mr. Walker of Port Perry and many others use the HINMAN on their beautiful Registered herds in preference to hand milking or any other make? Because they know it to be a success.

You will eventually put in a HINMAN.

Visit to Coronati

The officers and members of Richmond Lodge, No. 23, A.F. & A.M., have received an invitation from Coronati Lodge, Toronto, to visit them on the evening of April 11th, on which occasion R. W. Boo, Legge, D.D.G.M., will make his official inspection. The members are urgently requested by the W.M. to turn out en masse.

March Postponed

Owing to the condition of the roads throughout the County the route march of the 127th York Rangers, which was fixed to start from Newmarket on the second of April, has been postponed. Col. Clarke has stated that it will be at least a week later before the battalion can start.

Another Error

The Daily World last week in giving a short history of Mrs. Maxwell, Richmond Hill's oldest citizen, stated that the subject of the sketch was "born in slavery." The Evening Telegram last Saturday quite properly corrected the error, but made a grievous mistake in saying that the "young lady" who had celebrated her 111th birthday was a resident of "North York." When will those city newspaper reporters get a proper knowledge of history and geography.

Monday's Flood

With the exception of some wet cellars the flood of Monday, caused by the thaw and rain, did little damage in Richmond Hill or vicinity. There were several wash-outs along the C.N.O. Railway, however, and trains that were not cancelled crossed bridges and culverts very carefully. The railway yards at Rosedale were flooded to a depth of four feet, and thousands of rats were driven from their homes in the garbage made land at the foot of Winchester street hill.

The German War Woman

The Canadian Magazine for April contains a most illuminating article entitled "The German War Woman," by Eva Madden, a lady who has had a wide experience as a teacher in German girls' schools. Her experience has taught her that the women of Germany are trained, almost unconsciously, to act as secret agents of the Government. She reveals the methods used by women to keep the Government informed, and she leaves the impression that these same German women would do almost anything in order to serve their country.

Curlers Meet

Two rinks from the Granite Curling Club, Toronto, came up Saturday, and played games afternoon and evening with the Hill rinks. Taking the two matches together Richmond Hill won by a few points. Refreshments were, after the evening games, served at Rustic Inn and a pleasant hour spent together. A toast to the visitors was moved by Mr. Pratt and Mr. Cowie, and was responded to by Mr. Beatty. A pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation of the trophies which had been won during the winter. The presentations were made by Mr. Walter Scott, the winner of the Slater Cup being Mr. A. E. Glass, and Mr. J. Tyndall, the Smith medal. Both winners modestly told how the trick was done, giving due credit to the other players on their respective rinks. Before separating, a vote of thanks, moved by Mr. Pratt and seconded by Mr. McNair, was tendered Mr. Joseph Menkman for his excellent work as President of the club during the season. The meeting closed with "God Save the King."

Red Cross News

The members of the Red Cross Auxiliary are urged to attend the meeting next Monday, April 3rd, at 4 o'clock in the Public School. Important business will be under discussion.

There seems to be a very wrong impression among some of our members that the war is nearly over, and that Red Cross work is no longer necessary. We would like to believe this true, but common sense forces us to see that a bitter struggle is still ahead of our men, and there is much work yet for the Red Cross workers. Even if the war were over to day there would be Red Cross supplies needed for a year to come. Let us not fold our hands now, when our work is more urgently needed than ever.

Remember the meeting Monday next.

East York Liberals

The East York Liberal Association for the Provincial Legislature will meet in the Reform Association Rooms, 36 Toronto Street, at 1.30 p.m. on Saturday, the 8th of April. Prominent speakers will give addresses. An invitation is extended to all Liberals to be present.
