

Can Do My Work Pain is All Gone

MISS DOLLIE McCLAIN TELLS OF
DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

Alberta Lady Tells of Quick and Complete Cure Through Using
Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Ferguson's Flats, Alberta, April 10th (Special).—"Yes, I am very glad I can say that I have tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and found them all that is claimed for them." So says Miss Dollie McClain, an estimable lady residing here.

"I was troubled with a sore back that made me almost helpless. I took one box of Dodd's Kidney Pills and my back is all right. I can do my work and the pain is all gone."

Thousands of women in Canada are suffering daily tortures from pain in the back. Thousands of others like Miss McClain are doing their work without an effort because they took the advice of others and cured their backache by using Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Every woman should use Dodd's Kidney Pills. They are the finest tonic in the world because, acting directly on the kidneys, they tone up those organs to do their full work of straining all the impurities out of the blood. Pure blood means new strength for all parts of the body. New strength means new cheerfulness. That is why so many women so cheerfully testify to the benefit received from using Dodd's Kidney Pills.

WORLD'S RICHEST MAN.

Czar of Russia Has Income of $550,000 a Day.

The distinction undoubtedly belongs to the Czar of Russia, of whom it has been said that he has so much money no body can count it. And it is a fact that the wealth that is his as controller of the Russian Church, and as ruler of all the Russias, including that of the members of his extremely wealthy family, would certainly be too great to count, including as it does all the wealth of Russia, which is estimated at $35,000,000,000.

The Czar's personal wealth, according to one statistical genius, works out at $550,000 a day, and should Russia get down to its last cent—or rather kopek—in the royal exchequer, Nicholas, singlehanded, could keep the entire Russian army in the field several weeks.

Most of the Czar's wealth is derived from landed possessions, of which he has nearly 150,000,000 acres, three-quarters of which is rich timber and yielding big rentals. The other quarter in mining land. Siberia's mines are owned by the Czar, while his jewelry and art works are of fabulous worth. The Czar's State income is about $10,000,000, out of which, however, he has to provide for the expenses of his household, which includes the upkeep of more than a hundred palaces, to say nothing of the Russian Court, with its 30,000 servants, 230 automobiles, 5,000 thoroughbred horses, and an army of several thousand soldiers and detectives.

HANDY HUSBAND.

Breakfast.

"I know one dish I can prepare for breakfast as well as any cook on earth," said my husband one morning when the cook was ill and he had volunteered to help get breakfast. He appeared with his dish and I discovered it was Grape-Nuts which, of course, was easy to prepare for it was perfectly cooked at the factory, but it was a good illustration of the convenience of having Grape-Nuts about.

"We took up Grape-Nuts immediately after returning from a five years' sojourn in a hot country. Our stomachs were in bad condition and we were in poor health generally.

"In a day or two we liked Grape-Nuts better than any other kind of food on the table. We both gained steadily in health and strength, and this was caused by Grape Nuts and Postum.

"A friend of ours had a similar experience. She was seriously ill with indigestion and could find nothing to eat that would not give her heartburn and palpitation, especially at night.

"She found that a small dish of Grape-Nuts with cream made her a satisfactory supper and gave her a comfortable night's rest. In a short time she gained several pounds in weight."

"There's a Reason." Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont.

MANY ANIMALS IN WAR.

Horses, Mules, Goats, Elephants and Camels Share in Struggle.

It is doubtful if more kinds of animals have ever taken part in warfare than in the present European conflict, says London Answers. The list includes horses, mules, dogs, elephants, goats and last, but not least, the never weary camel. Dogs are being used for sentry and ambulance work, for draft purposes and as carriers of messages and ammunition.

Goats are being employed as food for the Indian troops, while the elephant has been given the task of handling heavy timber. Of these animals, however, the camel is the most honored.

An Eastern legend has it that the camel was fashioned last by the Creator, and so it is held in very high esteem by the people of the East. Although a somewhat unshapely and perhaps a bad-tempered animal, the camel is an untiring worker.

He will travel on for hour after hour without appearing distressed in any way, and on this account has made a good name for himself. There is not the least doubt that the camel will come up to expectations wherever it is employed in the present conflict.

SOME RUSSIAN WORDS.

Most of Them Are Long and Lumbering—Few Monosyllables.

As languages go, I think it may be said that Russian is not so very difficult, says Hamilton Fyfe in the London Daily Mail.

It is quite true that there is more of "the immense pomposity of sesquipedalian verbiage" in this than in most other tongues. Monosyllables are rare.

Small, common words in French and English are long and lumbering in Russian. Man is "cheoviek," bread is "klieb," next (as in next day) is "sleeyadooyooshtchooyoo." This is not a joke.

All participles are tremendous. "Being," for instance, is "yahvliayoooshtchooyoo." This last word, by the way, illustrates the compendious character of the Russian alphabet. In English it has twenty-one letters; in Russian only ten. "Yah" is represented by one letter, an "R" turned backwards; "shtch" is one letter; "yoo" is one letter.

HOW GERMANS STOP WASTE.

Smallest Metal Trifle is Saved and Sent to Government.

Every British newspaper at the present time is appealing to its readers not to waste certain things, as old newspapers, medicine and other bottles, wood, and so on.

In Germany the appeal was made many months ago and the greatest care has been taken of everything which could possibly help the German armies to continue their fight against the world.

Perhaps the most amazing example of economy of a nation is the way metal of all kinds is collected by the Huns. Not only are such obvious things as copper kettles, pans, door-knobs, handles, and fire irons collected, but everything in the metal line.

When a tube of toothpaste is empty it is not thrown away, but sent for the use of the Government. The tin-foil paper in which tea is put up is kept carefully, and the same with the "silver paper" around chocolate.

In Germany the various town councils advertise regularly for old metal of all kinds. From all towns the collection passes to the great German Government foundries at Mulden, where it is melted down and distributed to the ammunition factories to be transformed into shells and bullets.

Filial Observation.

"When I was your age I didn't dance till 1 or 2 o'clock in the morning."

"Well, paw," replied the young man who was being reproved, "maybe if you had you wouldn't be obliged to spend so much time and money now taking dancing lessons."

TRAGIC FOLLY.

It will not be long before the fly season is again with us, accompanied by supplications from the general press to "swat the fly." Simultaneously, the deadly poison fly paper, makes its appearance, with the possible risk of fatal poisoning wherever there are children.

For during 1915 twenty-six cases of fly-poisoning were reported from eleven states. In 1914 forty-six children were innocent victims.

This record is in all probability incomplete as symptoms of arsenical poisoning are so similar to those of cholera infantum that even physicians of long experience are likely to confuse them, and the subsequent illness, is ascribed to cholera infantum.

The Michigan U.S.A. Legislature has already passed a law regulating the sale of poisonous fly papers. The question should be considered by every civic body of Canada and the States to stop infantum mortality from an absolutely unnecessary cause.

Probably the best way to get rich quick is to go slow.
