220th York Rangers O. S. B. Concert

Under the distinguished patronage of His Honour Sir John Hendrie

A concert was given on Thursday evening, April 6th, in the Margaret Eaton School of Expression under the auspices of the 220th York Rangers Overseas Battalion. The crowd that gathered in the fine Concert Hall somewhat taxed its dimensions. Among the audience were Lt. Col., and Mrs. Allen Fraser, Lt. Col., and Mrs. B. H. Brown, Lt. Col., and Mrs. E. F. Clark, Major and Mrs. Pink, Lady Walker and party occupying the Box, Miss Bessie Baldwin Dr., and Mrs. Baldwin, Controllers, Cameron, O'Neil, Thompson, Foster, Fire Chief Smith, City Architect Mr. Price, Mr. Chisholm, Mr. Powell City Engineer.

The programme was of an attractive nature and each number met with great applause. Miss Maud Scriby displayed wonderful execution on the Cello and kept the audience spellbound by the magic of her delicate and skilful touch. Miss Winnifred Henderson with her charming soprano voice rendered "The Soldiers' Betrothed" and "I Wonder Why?" in first-class style, and her duet with Mr. Arthur Brown was of a very high order. The Recitations entitled "A Leap for Life" and "A Scottish Courtship" were given with perfect articulation and great dramatic effect by Miss Ethel Cocking. Mr. Arthur Brown excelled himself with his rich baritone in "The Pipes of the Gordons." His duets with Lieut. Ed. C. Johnstone were particularly pleasing. Lieut. Ed. C. Johnstone of the 220th Bn., made a hit with his song "The Land of the Red, Red, Rose," which his fine tenor voice did good justice to. Mr. Ruthven McDonald with his well chosen and excellently rendered numbers "The Song of the Bow" and "The Horn" won great applause. Mr. Bert Harvey convulsed the audience with his clever and amusing comic songs. Mr. Ernest R. Bowles accompanied in excellent style. The attractive little daughter of Lt. Col. B. H. Brown made a very pleasing interlude from time to time in the evenings' entertainment when she stepped on to the platform and presented the ladies who so kindly gave their services with a bouquet of lovely roses.
