

A Crisp, Delicious "Snack" for luncheon or after-the-theatre, or any old time when the appetite craves "something different" is TRISCUIT, the Shredded Whole Wheat toast. Heat it in the oven to restore its crispness, then serve with butter, soft cheese or marmalades. As a toast for chafing dish cookery it is a rare delight. It is full of real nutriment.

A LIVELY PET.

Panther Cub Which Grew Up to be Altogether Too Funny.

It was in the course of a hunting trip in the jungle that Sir Robert Baden-Powell acquired the unusual pet whose story he tells in "Memories of India," his fascinating volume of reminiscences.

We directed our elephants into the patch of high grass in which the panther was said to be. Presently, as we swished through it, my animal paused and began to sniff with her trunk. Peering down into the grass, I saw a small patch of spotted fur. It looked like the forefoot of a panther. I took quick aim and fired immediately behind it in order to hit the animal in the body. The small patch still twitched about, and then I saw that it was a wee panther cub just able to crawl. So I slid off my elephant and picked it up.

The cub flourished and became a favorite with everyone, especially with my fox terrier. The two spent most of their time gamboling and rolling over together. After a time the kitten began to grow into a lumbering hobbledohy, with great loose limbs and strong jaws. Then the games began to result in howls from the dog. The cub's mouthing became painful to him, as indeed it did to me; my hands were scarred and torn with the youngster's endearments.

He became increasingly playful. He would career round the garden and into the house, jump on the table in my sitting-room, and sweep everything off with a crash; then with a bound he would clear the sofa and dash out of the window into the veranda and on the breakfast table, where a smash of crockery would send him off in a pretensed panic round the garden again. I could never feel angry with him; he made me laugh so.

One day, when out walking, I met some ladies whom I knew. I stood talking to them with the panther at heel. Presently the breeze caught the lace edging of a lady's petticoat. Spots pricked his ears, and his head gradually went more and more sideways as he gazed with fascination on the twinkling lace.

"What is it?" he thought. "Is it alive? Yes, it must be." "Pit-chumm!" and he suddenly sprang. The lady whisked her skirt out of the way with a scream. That was too much; Spots set to work to claw in dead earnest. I don't know where he would have stopped if I had not got him by the collar and hauled him off.

Shortly afterwards I had to leave India, and I offered my charming panther to anyone who would like to have him. I gave a twenty-four hours' trial of him to anyone who thought of taking him. Lots of people tried him, but none applied for him as a permanent gift, and I eventually sold him to Jamrach.

Flummixed.

Pat had but a limited knowledge of the bird kingdom. One day, walking down the street, he noticed a green bird in a cage, talking and singing. Thinking to pet it he stroked its head. The bird turned quickly, screaming "Hello! What do you want?" Pat shied off like a frightened horse, lifting his hat and bowing politely as he stuttered out: "Excuse me, a-sir, I thought you was a burrd!"

Cure Borders on the Miraculous

A. SAWYER TELLS OF WONDERFUL WORK OF DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

He and His Wife, After Years of Doctoring, Found Quick Relief and Permanent Cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Caporal Junction, Ont., April 24th.—(Special.)—Bordering on the miraculous is the cure of Mr. A. Sawyer, of this place. For ten years he was an invalid. Five doctors failed to help him. When he was a complete wreck, and unable to walk across his room, he decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. Six boxes of them made him like a new man.

"Yes, I suffered for ten years," Mr. Sawyer said in speaking of his cure. "The doctors of whom I tried, five altogether, couldn't give me any permanent relief. Some said I had rheumatism, others called it lumbago, but I got steadily worse."

"I must say I was a complete wreck when I started to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. They made a new man of me."

"My wife got the same good results from them. It was after trying several doctors and a specialist from Sault Ste. Marie, who advised her to stay in bed a month, that she decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. She took a dozen boxes in all with splendid results. We both praise Dodd's Kidney Pills. No one can speak too highly of them."

Dodd's Kidney Pills have a record of over a quarter of a century in Canada, during which time they have earned undying praise in all parts of the Dominion. Ask your neighbors about them.

DISSOLUTE GERMAN YOUTHS.

Stringent Rules Applying to Boys Under 17 Promulgated.

The authorities in all parts of Germany have determined to take active and very drastic steps against the various influences which are alleged to be at work in the deterioration of the young. Criminologists and statisticians by the score brought forward details of dissoluteness which are almost incredible, and pointed out the rapidly increasing number of youthful delinquents, and the increasing gravity of their offences. All of these authorities called on the Government to take steps to save the youth of the Fatherland and to act the part of the natural parent, who was prevented by his military duties from bringing up his children as law-abiding citizens. Action is now being taken, the military authorities and the municipality competing with one another in the number and severity of the ordinances which are being issued. As a sample of these we may take the ordinances issued by the commander of the first Bavarian Army Corps.

It is forbidden to give or to sell to youths under 17 cigars, cigarettes or tobacco for smoking, chewing or snuffing. Youths under 17 are forbidden to smoke on the streets or other public places.

It is not permitted to youths under 17 to enter eating or drinking houses after 9 p.m., even though accompanied by their parents or guardians. At other times they will not be permitted without the presence of parents or guardians, pastors or teachers. Should it be necessary, the local police may fix an earlier hour than 9 p.m.

Very stringent rules apply to visits to cinemas. Children under 17, whether accompanied by guardians or alone, will not be permitted to enter, except to such pictures as have been

Fly Poison Kills More Children Than All Other Poisons Combined

For Safety's Sake, Use

Is there within your home, anywhere within baby's reach, a saucer of arsenic poisoned paper floating in water, or a can with a sweetened poisoned wick?

During 1915, 26 cases of fly poisoning were reported from 11 states; in 1914, 46 cases from 14 states. Fly poison kills more children than all other poisons combined.

Yet fly poison still is left unguarded except in the homes where mothers have learned that the safe, sure, non-poisonous, efficient fly catcher and destroyer is

TANGLEFOOT

The Journal of the Michigan State Medical Society comments thus in a recent issue:

"Symptoms of arsenical poisoning are very similar to those of cholera infantum; undoubtedly a number of cases of cholera infantum were really cases of arsenical poisoning, but death, if occurring, was attributed to cholera infantum."

"We repeat, arsenical fly destroying devices are dangerous and should be abolished. Health officials should become aroused to prevent further loss of life from their source. Our Michigan Legislature, this last session, passed a law regulating the sale of poisonous fly papers."

specially sanctioned by the police as innocuous. Should children under 17 visit the sanctioned pictures, they must do so in batches, and be accompanied by responsible elders. A most important reform is the total abolition of the pictorial representations hung outside the cinema. It is the experience of the police that the majority of these pictures exercise a potent influence for evil.

Booksellers are forbidden to sell books to youthful persons which may exercise a bad influence on them by vitiating the sound principles which they have acquired at school and in their homes. A list of 50 books, many of them with patriotic titles, is supplied to dealers, which on no account must be sold or lent to young people.

A few days after a farmer had sold a pig to a neighbor, he chanced to pass his place and saw his little boy sitting on the edge of the pen, watching its new occupant.

"How d'ye do, Johnny?" said he.

"How's your pig to-day?"

"O, pretty well, thank you," replied the boy.

"How's all your folks?"

REVERED AS SAINTS.

Where Lunatics Are Looked Upon as Wonderful Beings.

It appears there are places where lunatics are not shut up and kept away from the rest of the world, but are revered as saints and far superior to the ordinary run of mortals. This is the queer state of affairs that exists in some of the interior cities of Persia. A British traveller named Fetter, recently returned from the Orient, brings back some interesting tales of the mentally-deranged men who are looked upon in the light of wonderful beings.

One particularly crazy man, according to Mr. Fetter, the craziest man he ever saw or heard of, does nothing all day long but race up and down the streets crying at the top of his voice:

"Ali! Ali! Ali!"

This is not a temporary form of madness, either, for he has kept it up for twenty years or so. He started it when he was still a young man, and his idea, of course, is to venerate the name of the God he knows by ceaselessly shrieking his name.

Everyone venerates him. The richest men in the city have presented him with rare gifts. One of them gave him a horse and saddle, and with that he gallops through the streets when he is not walking. He is privileged to break up any kind of a meeting or assembly, and all stop and listen to his cry as long as he is of the notion to stay in their midst.

At his death a huge monument has already been promised, on which will be carved the word "Ali," so it will tell to generations to come the story of the man who spent the best years of his life and all of his waking hours shrieking the name of the deity he worshipped.

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR THE BABY

The best medicine for the baby is the one that never fails to cure and which, at the same time, the mother may give with perfect assurance that it is absolutely safe. Such a medicine is Baby's Own Tablets. They are the only medicine absolutely guaranteed entirely free from injurious drugs and what is more they never fail to free the baby from those minor ills of babyhood and childhood. Once a mother has used them she would use no other medicine. They regulate the stomach and bowels; drive out constipation; expel worms and make teething easy. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
