The Liberal was pleased to receive a note from Lieut. H. A. Proctor, dated May 10, Shorncliffe, Kent County. Camp Borden, the new military camp near Barrie, will be as "dry" as Niagara. The board of license commissioners announced Friday that they had decided to accede to the request of the military authorities and close up the nine tavern licenses and two shop licenses in Barrie and Allandale on June 15. The board felt that this was a step justified by the emergency of war.

The front of Mr. J. H. Sloan's drug store has been remodelled and fitted with plate glass windows. The windows are not only attractive in appearance but are set in the modern "E-asy-set" fittings which prevent the glass from frosting in cold weather. The windows are also set at such an angle that articles displayed are visible, not only to persons in front of the store, but to anyone approaching from either direction. They add greatly to the general layout of the store, giving it a very attractive appearance.

Scouts Outing

Thanks to the kindness of Mr. Pott of Vaughan in allowing us the use of his bush also in providing accommodation for sleeping in his spacious barn some 25 to 30 scouts of the town troop were enabled to enjoy a two days camp extending over Saturday and Sunday. The weather, though perhaps a little cold at night, was in other respects ideal, and on Sunday, one almost felt the summer had arrived. We left at 3 o'clock on Saturday, taking our new Trek Cart (which has been built by some of the members of the troop) for the first time. After a pleasant journey, we in due course arrived and one and all were very anxious to try their hand at cooking, and ready the results were marvellous. Anything from "porridge a la scout," to tasty stew and potterhouse steel, were to be found sizzling at the different meal times. Four Scouts were detailed at each meal time for fatigue duty, and as becomes all good scouts, they did their duty willingly and cheerfully, likewise at night scouts were "fold off" for Sentry duty. At 9:30 p.m. came "lights out" but as is usual with the novelty of a first night at Camp, several were unable to get the usual good nights rest. In spite of this, all were astir at 5 a.m., and after a wash in the creek and a good sharp walk, fires were once more under way, accompanied by the appetizing smell of porridge, bacon, eggs etc. Then came prayers and Scout Service, followed by a couple of hours signalling. We were then visited by several prominent townsmen who saw preparations being made for dinner, but needless to say all the lads were too hungry to extend any invitations, and after a few hours leisure, we were once more "under way," and so came to an end the first of our week-end camps.

"Billy" Clifford

The Evening Telegram of Saturday contained a good photograph of Lieut. Wm. J. Clifford, formerly of Richmond Hill. Underneath the photo was the following paragraph bearing on Lieut. Clifford: "Formerly a member of the 10th Royal Grenadiers, went to the front as a private in the 19th Battalion about twelve months ago. He has received a commission in one of the second contingent battalions. Lieut. Clifford was the first Canadian-born contestant to win the King's Prize at Bisley."
