Infantile Paralysis

WHAT IS IT?

The following instructions regarding Infantile Paralysis are issued by the Provincial Board of Health:

Infantile Paralysis is a communicable disease chiefly of children between the age of two and fourteen years. Older children and adults may also be affected by the disease.

The cause is unknown. It is known, however, that the agent causing the disease is present in the secretions of the nose and mouth and in the intestinal tract from being swallowed.

The disease is epidemic in some United States cities and in at least one town in Ontario.

It is believed that Infantile Paralysis is spread from one child to another by means of the secretions of the nose and mouth by direct transfer. It is possible also that it is spread by flies which have been in contact with intestinal discharges. It may become widespread in country as well as in crowded city districts, and persons who have been in contact with cases of the disease may harbour the contagion and give it to others without contracting the disease themselves—that is, they are "carriers."

WHAT TO DO ABOUT IT?

Every case must be quarantined for a period of six weeks.

All children who have been in contact with a case must be quarantined and kept under observation for a period of two weeks.

Adult members of the family who are wage-earners may be allowed to go about their work subject to the regulations of the Provincial Board and on the discretion of the Medical Officer of Health.

Where there is an outbreak, gatherings of children, such as picnics, picture shows, and play grounds, should be prohibited.

The source of origin of each case should be carefully enquired into in order that proper quarantine may be maintained.

In houses where cases appear all doors and windows should be screened, the premises kept clean, and no accumulation of garbage or waste permitted.

All cases should be at once notified to the Medical Officer of Health, and by him to the Chief Officer of the Provincial Board.

Mild cases, showing slight headache, rise of temperature and vomiting persisting for a few days, with slight muscular weakness and absence of paralysis, should be quarantined. These are probably one of the chief sources of contagion.

As Infantile Paralysis is a most serious disease and in the present epidemic giving a high death-rate, the public is urged to second the efforts of the authorities in every way in order to prevent a severe outbreak in the Province.

All materials such as cloths, etc., carrying secretions and discharges from patients should be burned, boiled, or disinfected.

If the disease shows any tendency to spread, special quarantine measures may be necessary.

JOHN W. McCULLOCH,
Chief Officer of Health.

Mrs. John Wright and daughter Mona, of Toronto, formerly of Richmond Hill, spent the week-end with Mr. Thos. Whitmore before leaving for her future home in Kent, England.

The Board of Education last evening engaged Miss Stinson, of Toronto, assistant teacher in the High School, salary $800. They struck the estimates as follows:—P. S. maintenance, $1,500; permanent improvements, $500; H. S., $500.

Mrs. Emeha Bredin, widow of the late Dr. John Bredin, died at her home 69 Eglinton Avenue, Tuesday, July 18, in her 89th year. Interment in Richmond Hill Cemetery this (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock.

We regret to learn that during the past two weeks several packages of The Liberal failed to reach their respective Post Offices at the proper time. We have written the P. O. Inspector, and hope the irregularity will not occur again.

220th Battalion Activities

The big day of the season for Kettleby was Saturday, when Amphitheatre Park was crowded for the patriotic demonstration under the auspices of the King Township Reform Association. The farmers, though busy at haying, were all present with their wives and with well filled baskets of all the necessaries for a picnic. Special cars from Toronto and Newmarket were loaded all along the line. It was tag day, too, and all the girls, scattered all over the grounds, were kept busy to see that none escaped. A real musical treat was provided during the afternoon and evening by the 48th Highlanders' Band, of Toronto, and the Highlander Pipers, under the direction of Lieut. Slater, and the 220th Brass Band, led by Bandmaster George Sainsbury, alternated in giving selections—popular, patriotic and sacred. The 220th Battalion Bugle Band was also present. The football tournament attracted five teams, two from the 220th Battalion and one each from Newmarket, Kettleby and King, the prize for which was won by the King team after hard playing and a close contest. The other sporting events were run off under the direction of Mr. E. Hutchins, of the Sports Committee, the ladies' mail-driving contest attracting much attention.

A platform was erected in a picturesque spot by the creek and patriotic addresses were delivered by well-known men from Toronto and York County.

Oliver Hezlewood, Esq., of Toronto, spoke feelingly upon the duty of the Canadians in York County in the present crisis.

Lieut.-Col. B. H. Brown, Major Pink and Captain Davis also gave patriotic speeches, making a direct appeal for the 220th York Rangers Battalion. Col. Brown, in emphasizing the present urgent need for men, declared that there should be no privileged class. The farmers of York County had sent many sons to fight for the Empire, but more could still be spared. He cited the case of a farmer in West York who had asked him to supply two men to assist in harvesting the hay crop. That same farmer has five sons of military age and none of them are yet in khaki. He deplored the fact that so much time had to be taken up in recruiting which ought to be devoted to training the men.

The Hon. W. L. McKenzie King spoke with his usual brilliance and touched on some of the political problems, emphasizing the importance of the nickel industry in Ontario and the necessity for prompt action for the development of this source of wealth.

Other speakers were A. W. Roebuck, Thos. Urquhart, J. H. Widdifield and J. M. Walton.

In addition to the band concert in the evening there was a big display of colored pictures of war scenes.
