The Horticultural Show on Aug. 23rd promises to be a great success. The members, especially the children, are greatly interested. Special prizes will be given to the children for the best collection of moths, butterflies and other insects. A number of other attractions have been arranged. In connection with the show a committee of ladies appointed by each church will serve ice cream and tea and hold a sale of produce, home-cooking and candies. The proceeds will be used to provide a Christmas present for our soldiers who have gone from Thornhill. Musical programme. Come and have a social time.

Rev. E. S. Rupert, M.A., a superannuated Methodist minister, died at the residence of his son in Toronto Friday, in his 81st year. He was born in the village of Maple.

Notice

I respectfully notify the public that I have bought the Fuel business heretofore carried on by Mr. John Sheardown.

I will try and continue that business by handling only the best lines of Coal and Wood, and I expect to add to these, Brick and Tile and similar lines, just as soon as I can get properly squared away and started.

Only by selling a good article and by clean and prompt business methods can I hope to secure my share of your patronage.

I will build a new office near the C.N.O. which I hope to occupy by July 15th.

This adv. is only a starter.

Wm. Pratt
