Letter from Chaplain

REV. N. WELLWOOD:
Rev. and Dear Sir,—I am writing this note for your son who is a patient in the hospital. I am sorry to inform you that his left leg was amputated above the knee on Wednesday last. He is doing wonderfully well, and hopes before long to be around again. He wishes me to say that he has no regrets and is thankful that he has been able to do his part for freedom and righteousness. I wish to congratulate you on having such a son, who has the right spirit. I expect that he will be with us for some time, and you can address any letters here, and if he should be sent over to England they will be forwarded.

Very sincerely yours,
C. H. BUCKLAND, CAPT.
CHAPLAIN.

The Price of Newspapers

The increase in the price of printing paper has become so serious that publishers are getting together to devise measures to meet the situation. Many have already increased their subscription rates, and some have been forced to suspend publication.

We are advised, however, by the publishers of The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal that for the present, anyway, there will be no increase in the price of that paper, and we are permitted to offer The Family Herald and Weekly Star along with The Liberal for the small sum of $1.90, that is one full year's subscription to each paper.

This offer is good only until Nov. 30, 1916, as it may be found necessary to make a change then.

The publishers of The Family Herald and Weekly Star, notwithstanding the enormous increase in cost of production, have decided to spend more money than ever improving the paper, and to give their great army of readers greater value than ever.

A full year's subscription to The Liberal and The Family Herald and Weekly Star will cost only $1.90, provided orders are received before Nov. 30, 1916. Send your subscription to this office.

Anniversary services were held in the Methodist church on Sunday, Rev. R. B. Beynon, of Thornhill preached in the morning, and the pulpit was occupied by Rev. A. Wallace, of Toronto in the evening. On Monday evening a supper and entertainment was held, and was managed by the men of the congregation. The programme was given by Ted Parker, humorist, of Toronto.

On Wednesday of last week the noble estate was offered for sale by public auction. The dwelling house and the adjoining lot were sold at a good figure to Mr. Ralph Line.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Ireland were in Bolton last week attending the funeral of Mrs. J. Rutledge, sister of Mrs. Ireland. On the day following his wife's funeral Mr. J. Rutledge passed away. Both had been ill for some time.

A number of people here were sorry to see the name of Lieut. Stanley A. Walker in the casualty list, he having died in the service of his country. Mr. Walker taught school at Vellore when his father was stationed on the King circuit.

Mr. J. Manning and sons cut a beehive in their bush which contained thirty pounds of pure honey.

Rev. W. L. Trench Called
Died in His 39th Year

With very deep sorrow we record the sudden death of Rev. W. L. Trench, which took place at the Parsonage at Hillsdale, after a few days illness. On Friday, Oct. 13, he conducted a funeral on his circuit, deceased having died from blood-poisoning, and it is thought Mr. Trench contracted the disease by shaking hands with a person affected. He preached in his Church on Sunday, and on the following day played a game of tennis with the village doctor. After the game he told the doctor about an irritation in a slight cut on his right hand. The doctor cauterized the spot and watched his patient closely, but in spite of all his efforts the arm became inflamed. A specialist from Toronto was called, but little hope was held out. Thursday evening the relatives here received word of the sudden illness, Friday morning a sister reached his bed side, two other members of the family went on Saturday, but before they arrived their brother had passed away.

A touching memorial service was held in the Hillsdale church Sunday evening, and the remains were conveyed on Monday to his mother's residence here, whence the funeral to the village cemetery took place Tuesday afternoon. The funeral was very large, no less than fifteen brother ministers of various denominations being present. The service at the house was in charge of Rev. C. Watch, chairman of the district, who spoke briefly, and the address was given by Prof. W. G. Smith of Toronto University. The speaker took for his text, Ps. 16, 10: "For thou wilt not leave my soul in the pit, neither wilt thou suffer this good man to see corruption." Prof. Smith spoke of the great loss sustained by the church and the family, just as deceased had begun his life's work, but all must realize that the influence of his work and example will continue to work in our spirit. A passage of scripture was read by Rev. G. S. Smith, and prayer was offered by Rev. J. C. Speer.

The pall bearers were John Rumble, Recording Steward on Hillsdale circuit; Mr. Martin, another official; and Revs. N. Wellwood, R. McKee, W. R. Barker, and R. B. Beynon.

Deceased was born in Richmond Hill, attended our Public and High schools, and later graduated in Arts from Toronto University, taking his B.D. degree from Victoria College.

His charges were as follows: Steelton, Richmond Hill, West Toronto, Bruce Mines and Hillsdale, the last named place only since July.

Besides a wife and baby boy about a year old, deceased is survived by a mother, four sisters and two brothers. Will Trench, as he was familiarly known by his many friends, was a splendid specimen of young manhood, and we are sure his widow, his mother and immediate relatives have the tender sympathy of many friends in their sorrow and loss.

The boys whose habit it has been in the past to carry away gates, tear down signs, and injure property, will have a far better time if they go to the Masonic Hall and spend the evening with the spooks and goblins. The High School Alumnae will provide lots of fun on Hallowe'en.
