Mrs. Alex. Marsh, about 85 years of age, suffered a slight stroke last Thursday. Sitting at the dinner table she had been talking and joking with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. G. Marsh when the latter remarked that she had dropped her handkerchief. She replied that she was not able to pick it up. She was carried to her room, and her hand was bathed in warm water. The Doctor was at once called in. On Monday she was resting easier, and was able to talk a little.

Do It Now!

Do what? Why, fill up your National Service Card, of course! That is your New Year's Duty, i.e., if you are a man between the ages of 16 and 65. Do it why? Because your country requires the information, both for the proper conduct of your country's affairs during the war and for the difficult period just after the war. Having filled up your own card, see that it gets back through the authorized Post-office Collector. Then, do what you can to see that every other man in the house you live in, or the place you work does the same. The information will be of tenfold value to the country if everyone does this simple duty. It's a mere trifle that any of us at best can do, compared with what the men at the front are doing. This little thing we can do, and even if some of us think we could have worked out a better scheme, it is clearly our duty to turn and help. If the scheme is not a total success it will be because of those who don't do the trifle now asked of them, and any lack of success would be a loss of most valuable time at the most critical time of our country's history. Don't let it be your fault. Do it now!

Red Cross Notes

The Auxiliary wish to thank Miss Brown and the pupils of Jefferson School, for their contribution of $15.00, the proceeds of their concert, which has been received and is much appreciated.

At the meeting of the Red Cross Auxiliary on Monday the question of "Ways and Means" of increasing the interest in Red Cross Work was discussed. The work done by the women has fallen off very much, lately. The Canadian Red Cross has sent lists of articles that are URGENTLY needed. The Materials have been procured, and this sewing is waiting to be done, can the women of Richmond Hill refuse to make these garments that the Canadian Red Cross says are urgently needed by the men who are wounded and suffering? The Sewing committee is at the Red Cross Rooms in the Public School from three to four, every Monday to receive and distribute work, and to give any instructions that may be required.

Every woman is asked to help whether she is a Red Cross member or not.
