The coming season is going to be marked by high prices for all farm produce. It will be in your interest to watch the markets closely. The Farmer's Sun, Toronto, as a farm market paper has no equal. It has saved its readers many dollars by keeping them posted as to the trend of prices. There never was a time when this information was of such value to the farmers of the Province as now. Those who read The Sun regularly find it a business proposition that means money to them. Your subscription for The Sun can be left at this office.

Girls' Branch Red Cross

The Canadian Red Cross is facing a serious situation as a result of the scarcity of women workers, because the women are not aware of the urgency of the need. On November 1st the Canadian Red Cross in London sent out 7000 cases in response to Red Cross appeals although Canada had contributed of that amount only 3000 cases. The remaining 4000 cases had to be taken from the reserve stock which is being seriously depleted. We are quite sure however that our women will rise to the occasion, and measure up in their sacrifice and effort with our splendid men at the front. Join the Willing Knitters by calling Wednesday at the Public School and taking out your share of knitting wool.

DIED

CHAPMAN—On the 26th of January, 1917, Nancy, daughter of the late John Chapman of Langstaff, in her 83rd year.

Interment in Thornhill Cemetery Saturday last.

Alumnae Meeting

The regular meeting of the Alumnae Association of the Richmond Hill High School will be held on Friday, Feb. 2. It has been decided this year to study Italian Art. The first three of a series of biographical studies on this subject will be taken up at this meeting—Gioto (di Bondone) 1276-1337 by Miss Kathleen Murphy, Masaccio (Tommaso Guidi) 1401-1428 by Miss Flossie Allison and Raphael (Sanzio) 1483-1520 by Miss Anna Boyle. The roll call will be quotations from favorite authors.

Saul—Bredin

The marriage was solemnized of Caroline Louise, daughter of Mrs. M. and the late Chas. R. Bredin, and granddaughter of the late Rev. Dr. John Bredin, to Mr. E. Clifford Saul, both of Toronto, at the Riverdale Methodist Church, on Wednesday, Jan. 24, the Rev. A.P. Brace officiating. The bride, who was given away by Mr. J. H. Sanderson, Richmond Hill, wore her travelling suit of Burgundy broadcloth with hat to match, and was assisted by Miss Ferguson, of Gravenhurst. The groom was assisted by Mr. Fred McLachlin, of Toronto. The wedding march was played by Miss A. M. Brown, of Colpoys Bay. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Saul left for a short trip, on their return they will reside at 69 Eglinton avenue east.

York Choral Society Concert

In spite of the adverse conditions brought about by the war, the work of the York Choral Society has been proceeding very satisfactorily through this their third season's rehearsals, and lovers of Choral singing will hear the largest and in every way the best Chorus that has yet assembled under Mr. Newton's baton at the concert on February the 28th. The principal numbers on the programme are the splendid Chorus from Elgar's "Banner of St. George", "It Comes From the Misty Ages", Mendelssohn's beautiful Sacred Motet "Hear My Prayer" for Soprano Solo, Chorus and Orchestra, and the stirring "Comrades Song of Hope" by Adolphe Adam. These with Eaton Fanning's "Miller's Wooing", a group of short unaccompanied numbers, selections for Ladies' Voices and Men's Voices and Elgar's setting of the "King" and "Rule Britannia" round out the Choral part of the concert. The Committee hope to be able to announce in a few days the names of Soloists etc. and in the course of a week or so tickets will be in the hands of the members of the Society the proceeds from the sale of which over and above expenses will be handed over to the local Red Cross Society.

Farmers Holding Auction Sales

Kindly note that I have entered into a local partnership with COL. LONG, Canada's foremost Farm and Pedigreed Stock Auctioneer.

W. H. Bruce, importer and breeder of Clydesdale, says: "Col. Long is one of the world's best auctioneers."

The Auctioneers' Journal says: "He has given to the world its greatest auctioneer work."

Is it not reasonable that such an auctioneer—with his experience; with his knowledge of stock, of values, of HOW TO GET BIDS—can get you more for your stock and effects.

To Meet the High Cost of Living

The Canadian Northern Railway has inaugurated a system in its Dining cars designed to meet the requirements of the Traveller desiring a moderate priced meal. Table D'Hote prices: Breakfast 25c, 50c, 65c; Luncheon 35c, 50c, 75c, 80c; Dinner 50c, 75c, 85c, $1.00. More elaborate meals may be had a La Carte if desired.

Passengers are supplied with menu cards about thirty minutes before each meal is called, from which it may be ascertained what dishes will be served and the cost of same.

The Steward will be pleased to give any information and offer suggestions if required.

This system has been in effect for a short time only, but it has been patronized to such an extent as to insure the complete success of the scheme.

Another original feature introduced on all its Transcontinental Trains is a "Travellers' Shop" in charge of the porter in the observation cars.

The stock consists of a complete list of articles the Traveller is likely to forget, or overlook, in packing up for the trip, or might desire to purchase as an afterthought. Everything from shoe laces and collar buttons to smelling salts and bon-bons are obtainable.

The Patrons of the road have already shown an enthusiastic appreciation of these, two of the many original features characteristic of the progressive policy under which the C.N.R. operates.
