Sale of Shorthorns

The sale of Pure-bred Shorthorns, held at Headford by Thos. Thomson was a decided success. Thirty-two animals including a number under one-year old realized nearly $5,000. The success of such a sale can only be obtained by employing an Auctioneer that fully understands how to conduct a Pure-bred Shorthorn Sale.

'I Have Heard the World's Best AUCTIONEERS

and COL. LONG is one of them. He is qualified to step into any sale ring and make it a success," writes W. H. Bryce, a year ago. Mr. Bryce was known as one of Canada's leading breeders and importers of Clydesdales, thus his opinion is worth a great deal.

This Auction Business is now a science, and as COL. LONG has obtained from 10 to 25 per cent. MORE than breeders and farmers expected from their sales, and has, according to the Auctioneers' Journal "GIVEN TO THE WORLD ITS GREATEST AUCTION TREATISE," he certainly is qualified to get you MORE MONEY than the average auctioneer. If you would have $200 to $1000 MORE from your sale, book with us.
