

Mr. John A. Copeland of the Toronto Daily Star spent Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. E. J. Mitchell.

The directors of the Richmond Hill Agricultural Society will meet in the Council Chamber Saturday next at 2.30.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Cook, next Tuesday evening at eight o'clock.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church sent this week 25 boxes valued at $3 each to the boys who had been members of the congregation and have gone overseas.

Two rinks of the Granite Curling Club came up Saturday and played games with home rinks. The games in the afternoon were a tie, but the visitors won in the evening.

Clarence Palmer who enlisted with the Flying Corps last week was passed by the first doctor but was rejected in a second examination as being physically unfit for aviation.

The President, Mr. B. M. Taylor, presided at the Epworth League Monday evening. A talk along the line of service was given by Mrs. McMahon, and an appropriate solo was sung by Mr. J. H. Sanderson.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Lepard of Newmarket spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. F. McMahon. Mr. W. E. Wiley also spent a few hours here on his way to visit his wife who has been ill in a rest hospital in Toronto.

The Richmond Hill Epworth League will visit the League at Maple next Monday evening, and give the programme. Sleighs will leave the Methodist Church at 6.45. Friends wishing to accompany the League will be made welcome.

The usually well-behaved horse which draws Horner's dairy sleigh was startled by a passing car Friday morning while standing opposite the Richmond Hill Hardware store and plunged southward as fast as heavy horses generally travel. It barely escaped a collision with Hill's bakery van, but stopped very gracefully in front of Jerry Smith's watch establishment.

Confirmation Service

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Sweeney will preach in St. Mary's Anglican Church on Sunday evening and administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation.

Presbyterian Church

Sunday, March 4, the minister will preach at both services; in the morning the fifth of a series of sermons on the Lord's prayer, "Forgive Us Our Sins," in the evening, "We Must Needs Die."

The Young People's Society, Thursday, at 7.30 p.m. "The Life of John Wycliffe," a paper by Mrs. Ashe.

THORNHILL

Mr. McVittie, head gardener for Sir Henry Pellett, will address the Horticultural Society; his subject will be preparation for spring work. Come prepared to ask questions on any subject related to gardening. Mr. McVittie should receive a hearty welcome from all those who visited the Conservatories at Sir Henry Pellett's as he was most kind in conducting them and giving information. Tuesday, March 6, in Victoria Hall at 8 p.m.

Save Waste for the Red Cross

The Red Cross Auxiliary has arranged for the use of three buildings in different parts of the Village, for receiving waste materials, as paper, rags, iron and rubber, to be sold for Red Cross work. This waste will be received and stored at Dr. Langstaff's, Mr. Harry Sanderson's and the old band building, on March 3rd, 5th and 6th and people are requested to take their waste to the most convenient of these places.

Newspapers must be folded in four and tied in packages.

Scrap paper, such as letters, envelopes, bags, advertisements, wrapping paper etc., must be packed in cotton bags and tied securely. Rags in bags or bundles. Iron or rubber must be kept separate.

"I Have Heard the World's Best AUCTIONEERS and COL. LONG is one of them. He is qualified to step into any sale ring and make it a success," writes W. H. Bryce, a year ago. Mr. Bryce was known as one of Canada's leading breeders and importers of Clydesdales, thus his opinion is worth a great deal.

This Auction Business is now a science, and as COL. LONG has obtained from 10 to 25 per cent. MORE than breeders and farmers expected from their sales, and has, according to the Auctioneers' Journal "GIVEN TO THE WORLD ITS GREATEST AUCTION TREATISE," he certainly is qualified to get you MORE MONEY than the average auctioneer. If you would have $200 to $1000 MORE from your sale, book with us.
