NEW REGISTRATION SCHEME

A complete change in the method of getting voters on the lists for provincial elections is embodied in the government's bill to include women voters and soldiers who are away from their homes. In the counties of the province a board, consisting of two judges, a sheriff, a clerk of the County Court and the Crown Attorney, will be responsible for the appointment of enumerators for each township to put on the names of all voters. Every woman of legal age, who is a British subject or who becomes such, will be entitled to vote.

IRELAND STILL UNSETTLED

The Christian Guardian in a sensible article on The Irish Question says: "And it does seem like strange irony that Britain should compliment Russia upon the securing of greater self-government while at the same time it denies this boon to the Irish".

The Nationalists of Ireland have a real grievance, and nothing but deep-seated prejudice on the part of certain Ulstermen deprives Ireland from the natural task of making her own local laws as we do in Canada. England has long been in favor of such a measure, in fact home-rule passed Parliament nearly three years ago, and has been suspended because the Ulstermen have declared that they are ready to take up arms and rise in rebellion the day that home rule goes into force.

To fair minded men the whole affair must look like a farce. South Africa was given home rule, and the conquered people are to-day fighting side by side with our men in the great war. Home-rule has been a success wherever tried. But because Protestants and Catholics fought each other more than a hundred years ago the vendetta is handed down from generation to generation, and the Ulstermen continue to say "Ireland must not be entrusted with the task of making her own laws." Everybody admits that Ireland has a grievance. Remove the grievance and then see if Irishmen are less loyal than other men.

West York Conservatives

The following officers were elected at the annual meeting of the West York Conservative Association at Weston on Saturday:

President, S. Wright, Long Branch; Vice-President, R. J. Bull, Weston; Secretary, J. E. Lawson, Toronto; Treasurer, Thos. Griffiths, Weston.

There was a large attendance, and there was much enthusiasm.

The retiring president, Ald. Sam Ryding, as reported in The World, expressed disapproval in the way the Government is permitting munitions jobs to go to the United States instead of giving them to Canadian contractors. He also expressed the opinion that it was time the Government really did something about getting recruits.

A resolution favoring conscription was carried; also a resolution endorsing the Borden and Hearst Governments and expressing confidence in the sitting members—Capt. Tom Wallace and Dr. Godfrey.

Capt. Wallace, M.P., Dr. Godfrey, M.P.P., were satisfied to leave the matter of recruiting in the hands of the Government, but were willing to vote conscription if the Government introduced such a measure.

Dr. Godfrey declared the time was not opportune for a general election, and stated that the Liberals only hope of winning was to corral all the Austro-German vote in the West, and to get a solid Quebec.

Presbyterian Church

Sunday, April 8th, Easter Sermons and Easter Music by the choir.

The Young Peoples' Society Thursday, 7.30 p.m., "The Life of David."

Thornhill congregation this week feels immeasurably poorer in the loss of another of her elders, Rev. W. B. Findlay. Mr. Findlay was a man of unusual gifts, a philanthropic genius. Since coming to this locality he has planned, organized and set under way a great new institution the benefit of which the future can tell. From his mind and heart came the ideas which resulted in establishing this new method of dealing with the unfortunate. Already great results have shown themselves in rehabilitated manhood, an achievement beyond all price.

The deepest sympathy of the congregation is felt for Mrs. Findlay and the children.

Any who wish to attend the Concert from Richmond Hill and points along the line may avail themselves of the Special Car leaving Toronto after the concert.
