Wedding

The first June wedding took place on Friday evening when Dorothy McKenzie, only daughter of Mrs. John McKenzie, was united in marriage to Frank Rumble, by Rev. R. Herbison, in the Presbyterian Church. The church was beautifully decorated with cherry blossoms. The bride looked charming in a suit of cream serge, with a beautiful bouquet of orchids and lily-of-the-valley. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. Howat of Thamesville. The popularity of the bride was evidenced by the large attendance of villagers at the wedding. Among the guests were several relatives and friends from the City. The bride and groom left by auto for Toronto, and thence for a visit to Montreal.

Division Court will be held here next Tuesday, June 12.

This, our new serial story, is one of the very best written on the present war. The first instalment will appear in an early issue. You'll like Tommy; it is a strong, soul-stirring tale of the great world war that everyone in the family will enjoy. The hero is a Lancashire lad. He didn't want to go to war—not at first. "Let 'em as wants to fight the Germans fight 'em" said Tommy. Then one day he heard the cry of suffering Belgium; he heard the call of his own motherland—he gave up the best job he ever had and enlisted. He went to France; he fought a good fight—against himself as well as the enemy; he won the D.C.M. and—the best girl in the world. A splendid story splendidly told. Watch for the first instalment.

If your subscription is not paid up, send in the money at once and make sure that you do not miss a single instalment of the new story. If you are not a regular subscriber, subscribe now. This new story is worth the full subscription price of $1.00 per annum.
