"For God's Sake, Let Me Stay!"

He pleaded with all the intensity his weakened body and soul could master. His voice trembled. Tears lurked in his strained, anxious eyes. "I have traveled for two days on the train," he said. "I have been turned out of my boarding house. I have been turned out of a hotel in my own town. The local hospital refused me admission. Nobody wants me. For God's sake, doctor, let me stay."

This man had been a railway conductor. He had money to pay for his needs; so he applied to the Muskoka Cottage Sanatorium for treatment of the disease which held his life in its grip—consumption. But those sufferers without money and without friends, what of them? With their hopeless knowledge that people shun them, they believe it futile to seek relief. If their lives are to be spared they must be sought out and supplied with nourishment, medicine, and treatment. To do this costs money. Will you contribute a trifle to help in this effort to save lives? Please act quickly. Winter has brought keen suffering.

Contributions to the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives will be gratefully acknowledged by W. J. Gage, Chairman Executive Committee, 84 Spadina Avenue, or R. Dunbar, Secretary - Treasurer, 347 King Street West, Toronto.

QUALITY in the Right Place

Expensive upholstery don't prove that a car excels in quality. The real quality of the car is determined by its chassis—its power plant, transmission, axles, etc.

Both by laboratory tests and actual service tests, the different parts composing the Ford chassis have proven themselves superior to those used in other cars. Ford Vanadium steel has never been surpassed in quality and strength.
