King and Vaughan Plowing Match
Particularly fine weather last Friday helped to draw together one of the largest crowds that ever attended a plowing match under the auspices of King and Vaughan Plowmen's Association. The match last Friday was held on the farm of Sir Henry Pellatt, a short distance north of King City. Much of the plowing was pronounced to be highly creditable, though the number of entries in some of the classes was not as large as could be expected considering the tempting prizes offered.

Excellent meals were served by the King Women's Institute in one of the large halls, and hundreds of people went through the barns and stables on Lake Marie Farm, viewing the well-bred horses, cattle and other fine stock. Later in the evening the prize list was read by the Secretary, Mr. J. T. Saigeon, and addresses were made by Mr. Lockie Wilson, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, H. E. Ross, T. Cousins and others.

"My Paper!"

When Ambassador Gerard left Berlin, the only correspondent who traveled with him, and the last American Newspaper man to leave Berlin, was Carl Ackerman of the United Press Service.

Ambassador Gerard

Mr. Ackerman's dispatches appear exclusively in The Toronto "Daily Star."

About once a month we "Scoop" every other paper in the Province with the aid of Mr. Ackerman and other United Press correspondents.

Florence Boulton

The only Canadian Woman Correspondent in the War Zone—Miss Rosamond Boulton—sends us dispatches exclusively.

In London the veteran War Correspondent, Mr. F. A. McKenzie, assisted by The Star's own Staff, cables the big news of each day.

Carl Ackerman.

Thomas Geggie, late Sergt.-Major K.O. S.B., writes regularly upon Imperial and Military matters.

Sergt.-Major Geggie

The big news from the United States comes to us through the Chicago Daily News' special correspondents, as well as their War cable service.

We also carry the cable service of Windermere of the "Montreal Daily Star."

"Windermere."

We maintain our own staff in Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec and Winnipeg, and our local News Service is right up to the minute.

Our special articles are contributed by foremost writers on each subject.

Our regular news service consists of all Canadian Press, American Associated Press and Canadian Associated Press dispatches.

We also have exclusive rights to the pictures of the London Daily Mirror, Underwoods, Daily Mail, Topical Press Services, as well as Canadian Official War Records, Sports, etc.

F. A. McKenzie.

In brief, The "Toronto Daily Star" is one of the great broad-gauged newspapers of the World. By reading it you will be kept well informed upon every subject that a good citizen and man of the World should know about.

Read The "Toronto Daily Star" each day. You will thoroughly enjoy it, and be glad to acclaim it in all sincerity as "MY PAPER!"

Order it to-day.
