

Miss Wellwood is spending a few days in Toronto with her Aunt Mrs. Demorest who is in poor health.

York County Council will hold its first session of the year, in the Municipal buildings, Adelaide St. East next Tuesday.

The annual meeting of the Richmond Hill Agricultural Society will be held in the Council Chamber next Saturday at 2 P. M. The meeting is open to the public.

The services in the Methodist Church next Sunday will be conducted in the morning by the Rev. R. McKee, and in the evening by the Pastor, Rev. J. R. Aikenhead.

Owing to the storm and lack of coal, the Anglican Church held no services on Sunday last. The storm prevented the Rector, Rev. T. R. Haughton, from taking the services at Maple and King.

We have some snow here but when we come to think of drifts twenty three feet high, perhaps we feel thankful we live further south. Some of the drifts north of Newmarket actually measured that height.

Notwithstanding the extreme weather, our contractor, Louis Doner is making good headway with Mr. Hill's new brick house on a lot he purchased from Mr. Isaac Walder on Mill Street.

The Council met, pursuant to Statute, on Monday morning at eleven o'clock. The members elected made and subscribed their respective declarations of qualification and of office and adjourned to meet on Wednesday evening for business.

It will be seen by adv. elsewhere in this paper that Mr. F. J. Mansbridge opens to-day in Mr. T. Allison's old stand, a stock of choice meats and provisions, and hopes to receive a share of patronage of this section. Read the adv.

How would you like to take your berth at the Union Station, fall asleep and upon entering the diner next morning inquire how far on the road to New York we were and receive the reply "Weston." Such was the experience of one of our prominent commercial men during the late storm.

Newmarket, Jan. 14.—No electric cars have reached the town since Saturday at noon, nor has any mail or Toronto papers been received here since Friday night. The coal situation is extremely serious. Public schools are to be closed for lack of fuel, and the storm has cut off the wood supply.

Lieut. N. A. Keys, M. C. of Queen's Own Rifles late of Princess Patricia's Light Infantry visited with his friends Mr. Moyle, Miss Moyle, and Harry. He spent from 1915 to 1917 in active service in France where he won the Military Cross. His father is Prof. D. R. Keys of Toronto university.

Pte. W. H. Heise, watchmaker of Preston, Ont. formerly employed by Mr. Jerry Smith called on old acquaintances in Richmond Hill last Thursday. He better known as "Billy" has spent the past year in France as a machine gunner, where he was wounded in the elbow by a piece of shrapnel last May, and returned to Canada in December. He was just one day's journey West of Halifax when the great explosion took place.

A true story is told of a man in Hamilton sadly in need of coal and unable to obtain a supply. He answered an ad of a coal dealer for a driver and upon applying, was, owing to his personal appearance, readily accepted. His first order was to deliver a ton to No. — Bunks Street, but instead of doing so, emptied it into his own cellar and promptly paid the amount over to the cashier upon his return and at the same time told what he had done. He paid for his experience with his half-day's pay.

Look on the inside page for "The Triflers," the new serial story, which begins in The Liberal this week.

Owing to illness, the Editor has not been able to be in his usual place this week, but the rest of the staff hope that he will soon be well enough to resume his regular work. We are grateful to the friends who have sent in news items for the paper.

Our own Mr. Mylkes, a true conserver thinking his customers would not require bread on Monday owing to such a heavy fall of snow and the unusual gale did not make up the ordinary batch on Sunday night. The result was many batches of home made hot buns.

The Maple Baker, in attempting to reach the Village on Saturday had the misfortune to have an upset at Boyle's Pond and owing to the severity of the gale was unable to right the sleigh and had to leave his rig, bread and all, in its snowy bed until Monday morning. He managed to reach Mr. John Charles warm stable where his horses were comfortably housed, while he trudged his weary way, home on foot.
