

Cattle and Farm tractors have been placed on the free list by the Dominion Government.

Asb Wednesday, the first day of Lent was observed in St. Mary's Anglican Church by a special service in the evening.

In view of the lack of Hospital accommodation for returned soldiers, the jail farm property may be leased to the Military Hospital Commission.

Mr. Almer Metcalfe was kicked in the stomach a few days ago by one of Wrights black horses, which confined him to his bed. Fortunately, nothing serious is contemplated.

President Luman and Secretary Nicholls of the Richmond Hill agricultural Society attended the convention of Fairs and Exhibitions during Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Royal City Curling Club of Guelph were the winners of the Ontario Tankard, defeating Oshawa by 11 shots in the final. The Governor-General's was won by Lakeview, of Toronto defeating Detroit in the final.

The Fuel Controller expresses himself as perfectly satisfied with the result of the heatless days test. Many heatless dinners resulted on Sunday as also many tobaccoless ones, as parties failed to lay in necessary supplies before Saturday.

The Farmers Club of King and Whitchurch held their annual meeting in Aurora last week. S. P. Foote, ex-reeve of Whitchurch, presided, and addresses were given by C. W. Cane, Mr. Brodie, President Newmarket Club; and Mr. R. W. E. Burnaby.

Some thirty five drunks got an unexpected surprise on Monday in the Toronto Police Court when Magistrate Dennison ordered their dismissal, it being too cold to dispense justice. Some rubbed their eyes, wondering if they were awake, whilst others, to make sure they were alive, pitched themselves unmercifully.

About two o'clock last Sunday morning the Dr. was called to the C. N. R. station, to attend a young man named Shaw, who collapsed on the station platform, from over exertion, having worked fifteen hours continuously on the snow plough. The young man was taken to the Metropolitan Station, and sent to his home in Toronto.

Word has been received that Sgt. W. H. Bassett is ill in Chadwick Hospital, Carlisle, Cumberland, England, suffering from shell shock and gas. He has at present lost the use of one leg but hopes are entertained he will regain its usefulness. Sgt. Bassett was at one time our Lady Tailor in Richmond Hill and has hopes of returning here to engage again in his former occupation.

A grand exhibition of fireworks was given gratuitously by the Metropolitan Saturday morning in endeavouring to propel their cars over the ice-covered tracks and wires. Farmers from the outlying districts could easily dispense with their lanterns during the early morning hours, so bright and brilliant were the flashes of electricity emitted from the trolleys.

Many aviators have met death on their initial flights, the latest being Cadet Fisher who was discovered dead in a field near Downsview by a farmer with his wrecked machine. No one witnessed the mishap and the machine fell from an altitude of 300 or 400 feet. The residents of Woodbridge unexpectedly got a thriller on Sunday when Cadet Porter landed with his machine on Main Street. The engine of the cadet suddenly stalled and he had to make the descent on the wide street. He escaped injury and after his machine was repaired returned to the aerodrome in safety.

The Executive of the Richmond Hill Agricultural Society met at the house of Mr. J. S. McNair last Saturday evening, revised the prize-list and considered other important business in connection with the Fair. After their labours were concluded, they were invited to the dining-room by Mrs. McNair, where the tired Directors were surprised to behold a bountiful repast spread. It is needless to say full justice was done to the good things provided and after thanking the kind hostess for her hospitality, had a very pleasant ride home over the crust-laden snow, fences being no obstruction and gates no hindrance. The ribbons were in the careful hands of stout Jimmie McLean.

"The Condition of the Fur Seals Today" by Bonnycastle Dale; "His First Duck" by F. V. Williams; "The Civilizing of Split Rock" by M. A. Skaw; "Injun Devil" by H. A. Sturtzel; "A Toilet Set for the Camper" by E. G. Brewer; "The Old Time River Brigade" by R. J. Frazier; "Wandering Trails" by H. C. Haddon; "A Hunt with New Brunswick Guides;" these are some of the stories and articles that go to make up the mid-winter number of Rod and Gun in Canada, published at Woodstock, Ont., by W. J. Taylor Limited. In addition to the above their February number contains under the heading of "Guns and Ammunition" two fine articles by expert gunmen, namely Thos. K. Lee and Major Townshend Whelen. Mr. Lee is described by the editor of this department as "undoubtedly the finest target shot with the .22 rifle that there has ever lived" and his article on Repeating and Single Shot rifles will be read with great interest by gunmen.

The Red Cross Skating party, is shure going to be swell. The ladies have a booth fixed up. And good things there to sell. You may come all togged in costume. A prize perhaps you'll get. And if you come you will have A swell time that I'll bet.
