Mr. Smith of Yonge Street Methodist Church will preach at 2 and 7 p. m., and Mrs. L. Annis will sing.

Not Creditable

It is humiliating to have to point out that small bills have been sent around the village, and two attempts made to hold a meeting of the citizens relative to starting a campaign for a suitable memorial for our young men who made the supreme sacrifice in the late war. Not more than three or four storekeepers and men in business attended either meeting, and those who did attend did not feel justified in shouldering the responsibility for the whole village. Let the third time be the charm. We must not let our patriotism die with the war.

TREMAINE-PUGSLEY

The marriage was solemnized at St. James' Church, Sutton West, Ont., on May 11, of Isabel Evelyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pugsley, who became the bride of Lt. John Ernest Tremayne, son of Mr. F. G. Tremayne. Snowballs and peonies decorated the church where the service was conducted by the Rev. H. Tremayne, of Mimico, the groom's uncle, assisted by the Rev. H. E. Noxon, of Sutton West. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a lovely gown with tunic of rose point lace over silver tissue satin, the train hanging from the shoulders. Her veil of Brussels lace was arranged from a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried sweetheart roses and sweetpeas. Miss Olive Pugsley was bridesmaid, wearing a pretty frock of pale pink silk crepe de chine with rosebud wreathing and white lace hat. Her flowers were pink and mauve sweetpeas. Mr. Maurice Tremayne was groomsmen and Mr. Alex Latimer and Lieut. Harold Bruels were ushers. A reception was held afterwards at the home of the bride's parents, and later Mr. and Mrs. Tremayne left by motor for Toronto, going on later to Algonquin Park. For travelling the bride wore a navy blue serge suit with hat to match.

EGGS!

WHEN Eggs are $1 per doz. at certain seasons of the year it is pleasant as well as PROFITABLE to be able to take from a crock full of Eggs bought at 40c. doz. and perfectly fresh, too.

To cook them without cracking they should be put in cold water and brought to a boil.

The way to share this big profit is to procure a tin of

WATER GLASS

One Tin is sufficient to preserve 12 doz. Eggs, but they must be strictly fresh when dropped into the solution.

THIS PROCESS OF PRESERVING EGGS HAS BEEN RECOMMENDED BY LEADING AGRICULTURAL COLLEGES.
