Vaughan Council
The Council of the municipality of the Township of Vaughan met at the Town Hall, Veilore, on Monday, the 7th of July.
Members present: Mr. John G. Whitmore, reeve; Mr. Walter Anderson, deputy reeve; and Messrs T. B. Weldrick, Geo. Kellam and W. O. McDonald, councillors.
Minutes of last meeting read and approved; also minutes of special meeting held on June 13; read and approved.
Mr. Alex Cameron Jr. appeared before the Council asking for the usual donation to the Woodbridge Agricultural Society.
The following petitions were received: From 20 residents of the village of Kleinburg, and 13 farmers residing on the Gravel Road, and 9th Con. from lot 13 to lot 35 at King Town line, asking for hydro light and power.
Anderson—Weldrick—That the Treas. be and is hereby authorized to pay to the Woodbridge Agricultural Society the sum of $50, carried.
A large number of road and general accounts were on motion ordered to be paid.
Kellam—Weldrick—That whereas a petition has been presented to this Council by 37 ratepayers of Kleinburg and surrounding district asking for electric light and power, be it therefore resolved that the clerk be and is hereby instructed to take the necessary legal proceedings for procuring the same, carried.
Anderson—Kellam—That this Council appoint Mr. J. B. McLean, treasurer of the township to act as a member with the Citizens Memorial Committee for the returned soldiers, carried.
The Council adjourned to meet Monday August 4, at 1 p. m.
