Community Field Day

The various committees met at the Skating rink Monday evening and reported progress.

The Sports Committee reported that arrangements had been made for football, lacrosse, baseball, basketball and other contests, and the Banqueting Committee also presented a favorable report for the 4th of August. The question of having a horse race and prizes for ponies was left over for the next meeting. Another meeting of the joint Committee will be held at the same place next Monday evening.

Horticultural Meeting

The Society met on Mr. Allen's lawn Tuesday evening, when the President, Mr. R. Eudean, gave a practical talk on "Perennials." Mr. Eudean's task was easier by having his audience walk with him around Mr. Allen's beautiful perennial border, describing many choice flowers as he went. A business meeting followed, and three directors were added to those already appointed—J. H. Dunlop, G. F. Allen and George Allison. These meetings are interesting, and every good citizen should join the Society. The Exhibition will be held Saturday, September 13.

Cubs' Camp

Cubs came into Camp at the farm of Mr. George Westwood at Stop 46, twenty-two strong, and six Scouts to assist Cub Master July 12. Several parents visited the Camp on Sunday. The Cubs and Scouts paraded to Trinity Church, Thornhill, where Rev. (Capt.) J. W. Macdonald gave the boys a beautiful address on "Service." The ladies of the congregation afterwards served the lads with refreshments. Many thanks are due parents and friends for contributions of food for the Cubs.
