(A Photograph Direct from the War-Stricken Area)

$1 per Month Preserves the Life of One Child

Millions of war orphans in Central Europe are growing up undernourished and stunted.

Thousands of them are dying of typhus, tuberculosis and small-pox.

There is almost a complete lack of the nourishing foods growing children need, of clothing, of doctors, nurses and medical supplies. The condition of the children is pitiable in the extreme.

Upon this coming generation depends largely whether these nations will be healthy and right-minded or a hot-bed of anarchy and degeneration—a menace to the world.

It has been found by experience that the cost of caring for a waif child is approximately three dollars per month; that of the supplies that are required by imports about one dollar is needed; and therefore the dollar that we provide, together with the local support of local governments, local municipalities, local charities and local services practically preserves the life of one child.

The British Empire War Relief Fund will be administered in Europe by the British Red Cross in co-operation with the League of Red Cross Societies. Send your contribution care of:

Final Returns Give Republicans a Huge Majority, in United States

Ohio, the Home State of both the Principal Candidates for the Presidency, Returned an Almost Solid Republican Delegation to the House

A despatch from New York says:—A record-smashing electoral vote for Senator Harding, topping the 400 mark, and Republican majorities of more than a score in the Senate and 150 in the House were assured from virtually complete returns from the elections.

With the Democratic strongholds of Oklahoma, Missouri and Tennessee definitely swept into the Republican party's ranks by the crushing victory, the Harding-Coolidge ticket had 396 votes, exclusive of the five from Montana, where the Republican State ticket was victorious and the Presidential ticket ahead.

The Republican landslide had given the Republicans 58 Senate seats as against 37 for the Democrats, with late returns undermining the seat of Senator Beckham, Democrat, Kentucky. His Republican opponent, Richard J. Ernst, forged ahead in a nip and tuck fight for the only Senate fight left unsettled.

Of the 34 Senate contests, the Republicans captured nine from the Democrats and elected all 15 of their candidates. Among the Democratic Senators who went down to defeat were Senators Chamberlain or Oregon, former Chairman of the Military Committee; Senator Smith of Arizona, who lost to former Representative Ralph Cameron, and Senator Henderson of Nevada, who was defeated by former Governor Oddie.

In the House contests, the Republican sweep gave Ohio an almost solid Republican delegation, only one district being in doubt. In this, the home State of Senator Harding and Governor Cox, the Republicans gained and the Democrats lost eight seats. In Missouri the Republicans gained another block of eight.

A despatch from Washington says:—A crowd of probably 2,000 League of Nations supporters marched to the White House at 8 o'clock on Thursday to pay tribute to President Wilson. The crowd was admitted to the White House grounds through one of the front entrances and allowed to gather near the east terrace.

President Wilson was wheeled out on the terrace, and sat for ten minutes while the crowd sang "America," "Carry me back to Old Virginia," and "The Star-Spangled Banner."

Looking old and worn and showing plainly the ravages of his illness, the President made a pathetic figure. He lifted his hat and his lips parted, as if to smile, but his face seemed tense with emotion.

Of English invention are machines for making briquets from the borings of brass or cast iron at a speed of four tons an hour.

SELF-DEFENSE, SAYS LICENSE INSPECTOR

Rev. J. Spracklin Shot Hotel-Keeper at Sandwich

Windsor, Nov. 7.—The climax to a long series of near-tragedies and other sensational incidents in connection with the liquor traffic on this border came early Saturday morning, when Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin, pastor of the Sandwich Methodist Church, and also a special License Inspector, shot and killed Clarence Beverly Trumble at the Chappell House, Sandwich, of which Trumble was the proprietor.

Spracklin fired a single shot into the hotelman's body at a range of less than six inches, the bullet entering the left groin and emerging at the back. Trumble crumpled into the arms of a companion, Edward Smith, and died within 15 minutes. He bled to death. At the inquest Saturday night Spracklin said he fired in self-defence. "It was his life or mine," he declared.

Feeling ran high throughout the border cities last night, and the police said they had heard open threats to "shoot Spracklin on sight." The minister was being detained at police headquarters for his own safety. Provincial officers took extraordinary precautions to prevent disorders at the inquest, which attracted a large crowd.

A despatch from London says:—The demand by members of Parliament for a billiard and card room at the House of Commons has been rejected, the first Commissioner of Works stating that there is no accommodation available. Also, he said that such games were contrary to the traditions of the House.

Crime in Ireland on The Decrease

A despatch from Dublin says:—The outrages in Ireland during the last week show a steady decline in political crime, according to a statement issued by the Dublin Castle authorities, but the campaign of guerrilla warfare against the armed forces of the Crown is being waged with increasing intensity.

Police resignations are decreasing and the recruiting of policemen from Ireland itself is increasing.

This is pointed to as a sign of renewed confidence that the Government will overcome the opposition forces.

Employ Submarines in Norwegian Fishing

A despatch from Christiania, Norway, says:—Microphones used by submarines to detect the approach of surface ships are being used by Norwegian fishermen to signal the arrival of shoals of fish.

The microphone connects with a telephone placed in the fishing sloop, and the character of the sound discloses the kind of fish approaching. Herrings cause a sort of shrill whistle, whereas cod produce a low rumble.

Ulster Men Choose Canadian Method

London, Nov. 7.—With the passage of the Irish Home Rule Bill by both Houses of Parliament, it is practically certain that prominent Ulster politicians who are arriving in London will confer on the establishment of an Ulster Parliament. It is understood that they have studied the machinery of Provincial Legislatures in various British Dominions and decided that the Canadian system is the best fitted to their needs. They point out that the Canadian sub-Federal Parliaments work smoothly, though different sects in different communities, as in Quebec, Ontario and Manitoba, so they believe the Canadian model is more suitable to their needs than the South African or Australian systems.

Japanese Start Relief Fund for Starving Chinese

Tokio, Nov. 7.—A group of leading Japanese business men opened a country-wide campaign to-day to secure a Chinese Famine Relief Fund. The list was opened by two subscription for $15,000 and one for $12,500 gold. The method for distribution of the fund has not been decided upon, but it is suggested that the Japanese and American Red Cross organizations might co-operate in the famine region.
