THORNHILL

Members of Thornhill Presbyterian Church choir gave a Christmas concert for the prisoners at the men's Jail Farm at Langstaff Monday night. The program was varied and included songs, readings and choruses. Especially did the men enjoy the well-known Christmas carols, in which, led by Mr. A. C. Chapman, they themselves joined. Rev. MacDougall Hay presided, and among those taking part in the concert were Miss Marguerite Boyle, A. C. Chapman, E. King, N. Smillie, George Milne and Douglas Cooper.

T. W. Uckle, Incumbent.

King

Father Christmas has been very busy this last week, and good old man he did not neglect to pay a visit to some 50 little anxious hearts of All Saints Sunday School and after a good supper provided by the ladies, to which the youngsters, besides the adults did ample justice, at a vigorous knocking at the door which was answered by the two smallest expectants, Father Christmas well loaded down, distributed to each wee participant of his good things, after many good wishes and thanks from the small fry, he departed to other fields of his labours. Games were indulged in and after a good time all round, the National Anthem concluded the proceedings, and we all went home the little ones to dream we trust of the true Santa Claus.

METHODIST CHURCH

There will be special Christmas services next Sunday. Rev. R. McKee will preach at 11 a.m., subject, "The Incarnation of Christ." At 7 p.m. Rev. A. McNeill will preach, subject, "The Way of a Star." Special music by the choir at both services.
The Bazaar held in the school room on Wednesday last, was a decided success from every stand point. The attendance was large, and the supper and concert were enjoyed by all present. The total receipts for the bazaar, including the shower teas, amounted to $430.00. The Ladies Aid take this opportunity of thanking their many friends for their contributions and patronage, and are grateful to all who in any way helped to make the bazaar a success, especially the friends of other denominations who so generously patronized us.
A very interesting programme will be given by the Citizenship Department of the Epworth League, Monday evening. An illustrated address will be given.

MAPLE

On the evening of the 15th last, the Women's Auxiliary of St. Stephen's church gave their annual tea and bazaar, in the Masonic hall, and through the energetic efforts of this band of faithful workers, a very creditable result financially followed. Everything was sold, nothing bought in. It is simply wonderful what the ladies can accomplish when they set their minds to a thing, men take a leaf out of their book, and make things hum, for your church.
The monthly meeting of the W. M. S. of the Methodist church was held at the home of Mrs. (Dr.) Routley on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. C. Cocking of Toronto was present and gave an address on Missionary work.
Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Brown left last week to spend the winter with members of their family in McKeesport, Pa.
Mrs. McNaughton of Queensville is visiting for a few days at the home of her son Mr. R. McNaughton.
Mr. Wu, Street of Toronto visited over Sunday at the home of Mr. R. Thomas.
A reception was held on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. G. Cooper in honour of her son Mr. Percy Cooper and his bride.
While cutting wood one day last week, Mr. W. Couper had the misfortune to cut an artery in one of his limbs.
