Give The Brunswick
—More Than Mere Phonograph

BASE your decision on the quality of the tone and you'll surely choose rightly. Your selection, like that of unnumbered thousands, will be The Brunswick. Not because we say so, but because a demonstration on this super instrument will convince you.

By the Brunswick Method of Reproduction a trueness, fineness and richness are given to tone that cannot be duplicated in other instruments.

These two exclusive features make the Brunswick the dominant phonograph:

1. THE ALL-WOOD OVAL HORN—built like a violin. Its entire freedom from all metal and its oval shape comply with the accepted laws of acoustics. It amplifies and projects musical tones with a purity, power and sweetness that is wonderful in lifelike fidelity.
2. THE ALL-RECORD, ALL-NEEDLE ULTONA plays ALL records CORRECTLY with the exact weight, correct diaphragm and exact needle. Nothing to take off or put on. A mere twist of the wrist adjusts it instantly to ALL makes of records.

Brunswicks are scarce this Xmas—place your order now.

H. S. Commencement

The annual entertainment of the High School held in the Masonic Hall Monday evening was one of the most interesting and instructive events of the season. The chair was ably filled by George Lasher who also gave the valedictory address. The programme included a recitation by Carroll Langstaff, instrumental duet by C. Martin and E. Dickenson, a piano solo by Blanche Grant, Folk dancing by six girl students, the reading of the Tattler by Albert Hill, and an interesting debate, "Resolved that Africa is more important to the world than South America." The affirmative was ably taken by Lillian Plewman and Mabel Hagerman, and the negative by Jos. Gill and Allan Armstrong. The judges—Mrs. Langstaff, Miss Morgan and Rev. R. McKee—found the contest very even, but finally decided in favor of the negative.

The presentation of the certificates and diplomas was taken by Rev. Father Kelly who congratulated teachers and students on the good work at the midsummer examinations.

The following were handed their diplomas: Upper School—E. Neill, G. Lasher, F. Oliver, M. Bailey, R. Robinson, H. Forester. Lower School—O. McQuarrie, M. Hagerman, I. Montgomery, A. McNabb, I. McNabb, K. Rice, A. Hill.

Principal Elliott also handed out medals for athletic sports as follows:—Iva Downing, Senior; Isabel Cowie, Junior. Ed. Mansbridge, Senior; Lambert Atkinson, Junior.
