Division Court

The only case that took much time on Tuesday was tried before Judge Wildfield and a jury. H. Green claimed damages to the amount of $83.00, which he had paid to repair his motor truck after being struck by a freight car on the Meir station Railway. Green's car stalled going north on Thornhill Hill. Both Green and the motorman thought the truck was far enough away from the track to allow the freight car to pass. Plaintiff claimed that the motorman should have stopped his car. The motorman claimed that the truck backed up just as his car came up and caused the collision. The jurymen thought there was negligence on the part of the motorman, but that the bill for repairs was excessive. They gave judgment for $50.

Under their manager, Mr. A. Pearson, the Thornhill girls journeyed to the Town of Welland Friday night and defeated the home team by 3-1. The return game will be played at Thornhill this Thursday evening.

In connection with the series of meetings and entertainments to make the church the community centre of the district a debate was held last Thursday in the Methodist Church here. The subject was: "Resolved, that wealth is a greater power and influence in the world than education." Richmond Hill supported the affirmative and Victoria Square the negative. The decision was given in favor of the home team. The Richmond Hill debaters were D. Fortner, A. E. Plewman and Miss Marjory Wright. Miss Gamble, Louis Nichols and Harvey Colliard made up the home team.
