Public Speaking Contest

A meeting of the J. F. I. A. of York County was held at Thornhill, Monday evening, May 16th. The meeting was of a social as well as an educational nature, the special feature being the public speaking contest, in which the winners of the annual contests of the last six years contested for honours. Mr. J. C. Steckley, Honorary President of the Association, occupied the chair and called upon the speakers in the following order:

Mr. Earle Toole, Newmarket—"Laying a Foundation for the Future Successful Farmer."

Mr. Jos. Snider, Downsview—"Aims of the J. F. I. A."

Mr. Earle Jackson, Fairbanks—"The Opportunities before the Young Farmer."

Mr. Robt. Watson, Woodbridge—"The Work of the Agricultural Representative."

Mr. Harvey Collard, Unionville—"The Farmer and the Tariff."

Mr. A. B. Bonner, Markham, was unable to be present.

The judges, Mr. R. S. Duncan of the Department of Agriculture, and Mr. W. B. Roadhouse, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, and Mr. Rutherford, Department of Education, in commenting on the speeches, congratulated the speakers on the clever, concise and logical way in which they put forth their arguments, and of the good work being done by the organization. The judges, after careful consideration, gave the first place to Mr. Earle Toole, second to Mr. Jos. Snider, third to Mr. Robt. Watson. The meeting then broke up and took the form of a dance. A very profitable and enjoyable evening is reported.

YOU MAY THINK the price of farm products has fallen more than any other article of common use but we believe a comparison of our prices on lumber to-day with quotations of one year ago will show that many lines of lumber have been reduced as much as almost any other commodity. In fact lots of lumber is being sold to-day at a loss and in many instances cannot be replaced by the manufacturers at the same price. It is a good time to build.
