VICTORIA DAY at Richmond Hill, Annual Fair a Success

The Richmond Hill Fair, fine weather provided, always draws a large crowd of people to the Village; this year was no exception to the rule. The day was a little cool for ice-cream vendors, but those who had booths report that business was brisk. Dr. Waugh, the noted educationist, who opened the Fair, complimented President James McLean and his officers for maintaining the traditions of the Richmond Hill Fair, and also complimented the O. C. and the Cadets who headed a procession to Grounds. Mr. Lockie Wilson, Superintendent of Agricultural Societies, also addressed the crowd from the band stand.

The heavy and light horse classes were well filled, and many of the animals were specially good. The ladies driving competition was very attractive, Miss Blanche Frisby of Victoria Square winning the Eckardt Silver Tea Service, and Miss O. Farr of Woodbridge second prize.

The entry in the cattle, sheep and swine classes was not as large as formerly, and the same could be said of the ladies' work in the Hall. The Aurora Band furnished good music during the afternoon. In football, the Northview team carried off the honors. In the 2.30 trot Frank Forhan's horse took first money, A. C. Morrison second; and Mr. Renben third.

A new feature of the fair was a live stock judging competition open to junior farmers, for special prizes donated by James McLean, President of the Richmond Hill Agricultural Society. Some thirty young farmers entered, and the four prizes in order were awarded to Dick Bayeroff, Aurora; Clark Young, Hagerman; Harvey Collard, Unionville; and Ross Anderson, Edgeley.

A list of the prize winners will be given in next issue.

At the concert in the evening the audience was large, and Mr. C. LeRoy Kenny and his able assistants put on a clean and amusing programme.
