MAPLE

A very successful day of sports was held here last Friday under the auspices of the I. O. F. A football match between Elders and Teston, resulted in a score of 2-0 in favor of the former. The Hope girls won in baseball from the Maple girls by 15-13. A number of races were run and other sports carried out. The monster tent was crowded at night at the grand concert, given by the talent advertised, and everyone enjoyed the programme. After the concert quite a number repaired to the Masonic Hall, where a dance was held.

The union picnic of the Vaughan S. S. Association will be held on the St. Andrew's church grounds on Wednesday, July 13. A good time is expected.

Twenty-eight candidates from Maple and the surrounding schools wrote at the entrance examination last week. Mr. T. McCormack was the presiding examiner.

A number of young people were entertained by Dr. F. and Mrs. Roddley on their beautiful lawn on Saturday evening. After ice-cream and other refreshments were served, Mr. R. McFarlane, who is leaving for Winnipeg, was presented with a handsome Masonic ring, and an address. The young people are sorry to have Mr. McFarlane leave the village. His place is being taken by Mr. Bradburn, of Blackstock.

TO REV. MR. LEGGOTT
AND FAMILY.

After four years of concord, we regret to learn that we are about to lose our pastor and his family.

Words fail to express our appreciation of so highly esteemed and talented a family. Our beloved pastor has labored unceasingly in the work to which he has been divinely called and has always championed the King's cause.

You have never failed to impress divine truths or sides epped when relating the inevitable doom that awaits the transgressor. You have been a faithful shepherd to your flock. In every respect you have proved yourself a man, kind, generous, jovial, diplomatic, energetic and worthy of your calling. We will miss your hearty handshake, your friendly smile and your words of consolation. While we miss you keenly, we must not consider our selfish interests alone, as our loss will mean another's gain. Though your labours here will cease your words, deeds and actions will live on and the memories will be cherished for many years.

Our best wishes and prayers will follow you to your new field of labour and we trust that the kind Providence will make your declining years your happiest, brightest and most peaceful years. That you may be spared to continue the Master's work, and that your future years may glide happily away without affliction or sorrow is the sincere wish of all.

If it were possible to admire anyone more than our beloved pastor, it would be Mrs. Leggett. In her quiet, plain though effective manner she has won the esteem of all. She has been an ardent worker in the Sunday School, the church, the Women's Missionary Society and every department of church work. She has certainly filled an important niche in the routine of church work. We also extend to Mrs. Leggett our sincere thanks for her assistance in the Epworth League and our best wishes for a bright and prosperous future.

We also congratulate Mrs. Leggett for raising to young womanhood two young ladies of such outstanding merit capable of filling any position of honour. They have remarkable personalities and a pleasing combination of talents. They are able, energetic and very enthusiastic workers in God's kingdom. We will miss you in the League, the Sabbath School, the choir and in various other departments. You will also occupy a warm place in the hearts of the young people of this place.

May the same Providence, in whom you have placed your trust, continue to comfort and sustain you while life shall last, and have a place prepared for you among the mansions of the just.

Southbound Traffic

To gain accurate information and to settle much useless argument, a detailed count of all southbound vehicles was made in Richmond Hill for 3 hours 7.40—10.40 p. m. July 1, with the following results.

Automobiles	648.
Motorcycles	9.
Street cars	13.
Horse drawn vehicles	4.

Arithmetic figures that on the average 15 vehicles passed a given point every 4 minutes during the above specified time. Is it not time that something really tangible was shown in improving one of Ontario's greatest Highways.

FARMERS

The Sterling Bank has made a special study of Banking Service—as applied to farmers. We have many indications that our efforts have proved of value to farmers in every agricultural field.

Let a Sterling Bank Manager explain where our Service will be of benefit to you—especially if you plan an extension of your farming operations next season.

Call and see the Manager the next time you pass the Bank.

King City

One of the largest gatherings ever held here, attended the fifth annual field day, on Lake Marie Farm, Friday, when 4,000 people from all over the community visited the beautiful farm and were entertained by Sir Henry and Lady Pellatt. The large herd of elks was the feature attraction.

All kinds of races were run and athletes from Toronto and York County competed. The league soccer match between Silverthorne and King City was a tie, each side scoring one goal. The soccer tournament in which eight teams were entered was won by Kettleby.

The flower and baby show were the features of the day. Flowers were exhibited by farmers from all over the district. The winners were the baby boy of Mrs. Roy Sinclair, Toronto, and the baby girl of Mrs. Vaisey.

In the evening 1,800 people attended a concert in the barn, presided over by Sir Henry. Rev. Dr. H. J. Cody gave an address. In another barn the city and country folk revived old time dances.
