

SAVE THE CHILDREN

Mothers who keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house may feel that the lives of their little ones are reasonably safe during the hot weather. Stomach troubles, cholera infantum and diarrhoea carry off thousands of little ones every summer, in most cases because the mother does not have a safe medicine at hand to give promptly. Baby's Own Tablets relieve these troubles, or if given occasionally to the well child will prevent their coming on. The Tablets are guaranteed by a government analyst to be absolutely harmless even to the newborn babe. They are especially good in summer because they regulate the bowels and keep the stomach sweet and pure. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Hopless.

Little Grace was met by a strange lady on the street who endeavored to question the child as to her father's first name.

"What does your mother call your father?" was the question first put.

"She calls him my daddy."

"Yes, yes, I know; but when she wants to speak to him, what does she say?"

"Oh, she says, '527, please,'" was the child's reply.

"I don't mean when she calls him at the office. When she tells him to get up in the morning, what does she call him?"

"Oh, she says to be ready in about five minutes."

A Circus Inside.

A little fellow was sitting at the table one day with a plate of fancy biscuits resembling various animals before him. As he paused in the operation of lessening the number, his mother asked him what he was thinking about so earnestly.

"Oh, mummie, I'm thinking what a circus is going on inside of me," was his reply.

Appropriate Hymns.

The Sheffield clergyman who opened a marriage service with the hymn:—
"Deluded souls who dream of Heaven,
And seek to find it here below."

was beaten in his choice by the bride-to-be who, when asked to choose a hymn, suggested "Oft in danger, oft in woe!" Another girl, although determined to take her chance, chose the hymn:

"I know not what awaits me,
God kindly veils my eyes."

Schoolboys furnish several examples of appropriate hymns, but possibly they had a knowing finger in their selection. Never was a last line sung with more enthusiasm than at the service held after a certain class had been read out, in which a boy named Jordan had, after many futile attempts, managed to appear. Every eye was turned to that youth when the lines were reached:

"Sorrow vanquished, labor ended,
Jordan's passed!"

Then there was the occasion when a touring team of cricketers played a certain famous English school. The tourists called themselves the Heathens, and they were tumbled out for an ignominious score by two schoolboy bowlers named Wood and Stone. The captain of the school, at prayers that night, selected the hymn "From Greenland's Icy Mountains," and every boy put all he knew into the significant lines:

"The Heathens in their blindness,
Bowed down to Wood and Stone!"

Disposition.

A certain Irish railway company has a regular printed form on which to report any mishaps which occur to animals on the line. Recently a stray cow that had wandered on to the line was accidentally killed, and Tim O'Toole, who had lately been promoted to be traffic inspector, was asked to send in a report.

In answer to the question, "Disposition of carcass," he wrote, "Kind and gentle."

A good conscience is a precious possession. A guilty conscience is better than none at all.

THIN, WATERY BLOOD MEANS ILL HEALTH

Rich, Red Blood Brings Bright Eyes and Rosy Cheeks.

The girl who returns home from school or from work thoroughly tired out will be fortunate if she escapes a physical breakdown, because this getting tired so easily is probably the first warning symptom of a thinning blood that must not be disregarded if her health is to be preserved.

When the blood becomes thin and impure the patient becomes pale. She not only tires out easily but often suffers from headaches, palpitation of the heart, dizzy spells and a loss of appetite.

In this condition Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be found to have a beneficial action on the blood. Miss Delima Lafreniere, St. Ambrose, Man., has proved this in her own case, and advises others to use these pills. She says: "Before I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I felt like a complete wreck of my former self. My blood was poor and thin. I suffered from faint and dizzy spells, and had backaches and headaches almost every day. I decided to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial, and by the time I had used three boxes I felt much better and I continued taking the pills until I felt as well as I ever did. For what they did in my case I cannot recommend these pills too highly."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be obtained from any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Words That Miss Their Way.

Words have a fatal habit of taking the wrong turning.

In certain old versions of the Bible Christ is called the ringleader of our salvation," a word changed later to "captain," whilst Paul called himself the "knave" or "lad" of Christ. Similarly, in old church books, the Virgin is described as "God's wench."

The words "crafty" and "artful," which invariably carry an unpleasant meaning, used to mean skillful and artistic, while the word "blackguard" was formerly quite an honorable term. It referred to the humble but perfectly reputable calling of carrying coal in the King's household.

Three hundred years ago an officious man was one who was always ready to do offices of kindness. A pagan was a rustic, and a heathen was one who dwelt on a heath. Our word "silly," now an insult, is in old manuscripts applied to the Babe of Bethlehem. He is called the "harmless, silly babe," the word "silly" meaning "blessed."

The word "charity" is one which has had a great fall. It is used almost exclusively nowadays to mean dependence upon doles and gifts, while the word "impertinent" has gone through a remarkable change. It now means "cheeky." Originally it meant a remark that was not pertinent to the subject under discussion, and gradually got to mean a remark to be resented.

His Hearing Restored

The invisible ear drum invented by A. O. Leonard, which is a miniature megaphone, fitting inside the ear entirely out of sight, is restoring the hearing of hundreds of people in New York City. Mr. Leonard invented this drum to relieve himself of deafness and head noises, and it does this so successfully that no one could tell he is a deaf man. It is effective when deafness is caused by catarrh or by perforated, or wholly destroyed natural drums. A request for information to A. O. Leonard, Suite 437, 70 Fifth Avenue, New York City, will be given a prompt reply. advt.

New Sunflower.

A variety of sunflower has been developed that grows only three feet tall and produces white blossoms that yield more seeds than any other kind of the same plant.

The United States leads the world in commerce, but ranks ninth in education.

Patricia was told by her mother to stand still while the band played "God Save the King," and not to wriggle. "But why, mother?" she asked. "Won't God save him if I wriggle?"

It is a peculiar quality of the eye known as the persistence of vision that makes the moving picture possible, for it allows time for a separate picture to pass behind the lens of the projecting machine, while the shutter is closed, before the image of the preceding picture has disappeared. When sixteen pictures a second pass before the lens they appear to the spectator as one continuous picture, but there is really an interval of darkness one third as long as the period of illumination.

Not Intimidated By Food.

"Don't be afraid of the meat, Mr. Grant," said the landlady to the new boarder.

"I'm not afraid of it, ma'am," said Grant. "I've seen twice as much meat, and it didn't frighten me a bit."

Feminine Finance.

He (looking at wife's cheque book) — "You don't mean to say you have given out a cheque for $100. Why, you've only got $40 in the bank to meet it."

She — "That's all right, dear. If the cashier says anything about it I'll tell him to charge it."

Discarded Style.

The City Nephew — "I'm glad to see Aunt Hetty dresses her hair sensibly instead of wearing those silly puffs over the ears."

Uncle Talltimber — "She tried 'em once an' they got tangled up with the telephone receiver an' she missed more'n half the gossip goin' on over twenty party lines."

Positively Absurd!

An aeroplane flew over an Irish asylum, to the consternation of the inmates. Next day two of the lunatics were discussing the machine.

One said: "Do you know I dreamt last night I made one of those contrivances and flew to Ausaralia in sixty minutes."

"That's strange," said the other. "I had a similar dream. I went to Melbourne in sixty seconds."

"How did you go?"

"Right through the earth."

"Look here, my friend, you're not a lunatic — you're a blithering idiot, that's what you are."

A Gentle Hint.

The dear old Scotswoman tramped miles over the hills to get a bottle of medicine for a small boy who was ill in her remote village.

When she had described the symptoms, the doctor set about preparing the mixture, one ingredient of which was a poison which could be administered only in the smallest quantities.

She watched him pouring it out with the utmost care into the measuring glass. He poured a little from the bottle, held the glass up to the light, and then put a few drops back again.

"Ah, doctor," she said, reproachfully, "ye needna be sae stingy. Remember it's for a puir wee orphan laddie."

A Cute Young Man.

"Sir," said the young man, with enthusiasm, as he seized the lecturer's hand and shook it warmly, "I certainly enjoyed your lecture last night very much indeed."

"I am glad to hear that," replied the lecturer; "but I can't remember seeing you there."

"No," admitted the youth, "I was not there."

"But," asked the puzzled speaker, "how could you enjoy my lecture if you were not present?"

"Oh, I bought tickets for my girl's parents, and they both went."

DAWSON WOULDN'T TAKE $1,000 FOR IT

DECLARES TANLAC ENDED TROUBLES.

"It's the Best Medicine I Ever Heard Of," Says Toronto Man.

"Honestly, I wouldn't take a thousand dollars in gold for the good Tanlac has done me," said Delbert F. Dawson, 174 Browning Ave., Toronto, Ont., well-known carpenter and builder.

Besides relieving me of a bad case of stomach trouble of many years standing, Tanlac has built me up ten pounds in weight and I never felt better in my life than I do now. I suffered so I could hardly stand the pressure of my clothes against my stomach and the way it pained me was simply terrible, and often I had choking spells, when I almost lost my breath. I was so nervous I couldn't sleep and mornings got up feeling more tired and worn out than on going to bed. I lost weight considerably and became so weak I was constantly losing time from work, and many times got so dizzy I had to grab hold of something to keep from falling. Nearly all the time I had a headache and sometimes it hurt me so bad I could hardly endure it. My liver was in an awful condition and I had liver spots all over my body.

"Well, I just kept getting worse, in spite of everything I did, until I got Tanlac. But this medicine seemed to get right after my troubles, for it wasn't long before I was feeling lots better. I've taken eight bottles in all and am a well man, never lose a day from work or feel bad in any way. It's a fact, Tanlac is the best medicine I ever saw or heard of."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere. Advt.
