DR. MINARD, Inventor of the Celebrated
MINARD'S LINIMENT

His Hearing Restored.

The invisible ear drum invented by A. O. Leonard, which is a miniature megaphone, fitting inside the ear entirely out of sight, is restoring the hearing of hundreds of people in New York City. Mr. Leonard invented this drum to relieve himself of deafness and head noises, and it does this so successfully that no one could tell he is a deaf man. It is effective when deafness is caused by catarrh or by perforated, or wholly destroyed natural drums. A request for information to A. O. Leonard, Suite 437, 70 Fifth Avenue, New York City, will be given a prompt reply. advt.

"What do you work at, my poor man?"

"At intervals, lady."

Something Missing.

She—"You are a perfect dear!"

He—"Not perfect darling—you have my heart!"

The River's Bed.

X—"They tell me the river is very low."

Y—"Yes, it's so low it's confined to its bed."

A Reason.

Elsie, aged four, refused to talk back when her brother teased her. Her mother said: "It was very nice of you not to answer back, as you sometimes do."

"Course, I see nice," said Elsie. "And, anyway, I had my mouth full of pins and couldn't."

Force of Habit.

"I wish," said the editor's wife, that you were not so absent-minded."

"What's wrong now, my dear?"

"Why, when our hostess asked you if you would have some more pudding you replied that owing to the tremendous pressure on your space you were compelled to decline."

His Ideas.

Youth—"I sent you some suggestions telling you how to make your paper more interesting. Have you carried out any of my ideas?"

Editor—"Did you meet the office-boy with the waste paper basket, as you came upstairs?"

Youth—"Yes, I did."

Editor—"Well, he was carrying out your ideas."

Mother! Clean
Child's Bowels With California Fig Syrup

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, give a teaspoonful to cleanse the liver and bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation poison, sour bile and waste out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful to-day saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

Substitute for Tea.

The active principle of tea is "theine."

That of coffee is caffeine. But caffeine and theine are exactly the same thing.

This agreeably stimulating alkaloid is found in other plants one of which grow wild and plentifully in the South Atlantic States, where it is called "yaupon," or sometimes "Christmas-berry tree."

The Indians brewed a beverage from the leaves of the yaupon long before the first white man landed on this continent; and during the Civil War it was used as a substitute for tea by people in the South.

The U.S. Government Plant Bureau is experimenting with it, in the belief that the leaves, when properly cured after the manner of tea, will furnish a palatable cup at a much less cost.

Benefits She Has Derived From Tanlac — Says Ter-appeared.

MRS. ROSE M. BROWN

"It sounds unreasonable, but I have actually gained 20 pounds in less than a month's time by taking Tanlac, and the wonderful benefit I have derived from the use of this medicine is simply astonishing," said Mrs. Rose M. Brown, 111 Third Street, Manchester, N.H.

"Why, I am so happy to be relieved of my troubles I can really never praise this medicine enough. Up to the time I began taking Tanlac, I suffered for something over two years with a very bad form of stomach trouble.

"My appetite was so poor I could scarcely eat a thing. My stomach would be so badly bloated with gas sometimes I was almost afraid to go to bed for fear I would actually smother. I felt tired and worn out most of the time and became terribly discouraged over my condition. I often had such violent headaches I was unable to be out of bed for two or three days at a stretch.

"Four bottles of Tanlac completely restored my health and anyone can see at a glance the wonderful change that has taken place in my condition. I have a splendid appetite now and the stomach trouble has entirely disappeared. I can eat just anything I want without ever feeling a sign of indigestion. The best of all, I am never bothered any more with headaches and this was the greatest relief of all. I want to tell everybody what this medicine has done for me." Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere. Adv.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Kiever.

Vancouver, B.C.—"I am pleased to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me a lot of good. I can now walk about without the aid of a support and feel real strong again. A nurse advised me to take the Vegetable Compound and it is certainly helping me. It seems like Heaven to be relieved after months of pain."—Mrs. H. W. BAKER, 8874 10th Ave. West, Vancouver, B.C.

Albert Co., N.B.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines and they have done me a lot of good. Since then I have been able to do my housework and I have a lot of work to do as we live on a farm. Seeing your advertisement in the papers was what made me think of writing to you. I hope this may help some one else."—Mrs. Wm. B. KIEVER, Upper New Horton, Albert Co., N.B.

The reason women write such letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. and tell their friends how they are helped is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives. Freed from their illness they want to pass the good news along to other suffering women that they also may be relieved.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Surnames and Their Origin

FREMONT

Racial Origin—Norman-French. Source—A locality.

There are two versions as to what the real meaning of the name of Fremont is, but virtually all authorities are agreed that the family name, as such, is but an English development of the place name of Framont in France.

Whether this place was named "franc-mont" ("free-mount") is a matter that is open to debate with the chances somewhat in favor of the former argument as fitting in better with what is known of the motives and habits of early European populations in the development of their place names.

In any event the name was brought to England in the Norman invasion and settlement in that country.

This period of English history was responsible for the development of many family names. The Norman Army was gathered together from all parts of Northern France, with the result that in such a gathering of individuals from different communities surnames referring to the place from which the individual had come naturally proved the easiest method of distinguishing him from other men of the same given name.

DENNISON

Variations—Dennisson, Dennis, Denis, Denison.

Racial Origin—English. Source—A given name.

There is really little about this family name that requires explanation, except, perhaps, the given name from which it is derived, that of Denis or Dennis.

One of the Latin, and more anciently Greek, names for the god of wine was "Dionysius," and the Romans carried it as a given name into the Celtic provinces of North-western Europe, which they conquered. It became a Christian name, and even when the Roman Empire fell before the conquests of the Teutonic tribes it survived, to appear in changed form in the new languages which sprang up in what is now France through the combination of the original Celtic with the Roman and finally the Teutonic blood.

The change was great. It had simply become shortened to Denis. It was taken to England by the Normans. The form Dennis is a later English development.

The family name, of course, was originally a surname denoting the parentage of the persons who bore it, and as there were many by the name of Denis in English, the surname "Dennisson" naturally sprang up in unrelated cases.

Are you stepping on the brake or the accelerator?

The food you eat does make a difference.

Heavy, starchy foods often do slow down body and mind—often steal the energy that belongs to the day's work. Grape-Nuts is a go-ahead food. It contains the perfected nourishment of Nature's best grains. It includes all those elements needed to nourish body and brain. It is easy to digest. It gives energy without taking energy.

How about your breakfast or lunch—does it give, or take?

Grape-Nuts is sweet, crisp, delightful to the taste, and is an ideal source of power for a busy and difficult day.
